

BREVIES.

Howell Breeden arrived at the school Thursday from Northern California.

Mrs. Mann left since our last issue for Klamath Agency where her younger sister had died suddenly.

Miss Skipton was conducted into the mysteries of the Eastern Star of Salem on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Blanche Howard of Salem visited her daughter Miss Frances Howard on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Sam Owen of Portland, Oregon was a Chemawa visitor on Tuesday evening. His many friends were glad to see him.

Quite a number of Chemawa people attended the play "Human Hearts" in the Salem opera house on Tuesday evening.

Pickering Chalcraft has been suffering during the past week with a severe case of Lagrippe but at this writing is much improved.

Supplies have been coming in quite rapidly the past week, over a hundred large boxes of clothing, etc. have been received in addition to a full car load of sugar.

Miss Brown chaperoned a number of girls to attend the lecture in Salem given by Miss Ross, travelling secretary of the Y. W. C. A. for Oregon and Idaho on Sunday afternoon last.

A little showery and windy on Tuesday morning made some people think that winter had arrived. "Don't you think it!" We will have many lovely autumn days before winter gets here.

On Wednesday Mack Colby and Wm. Corrasco returned to the school, together with Isabel, Dorothy, Phillip and Aurelius Calbot who were sent in by Supt Chalcraft who is in the Sound country after pupils.

Mr. Campbell visited Portland on Tuesday and brought a big bag of gold back from the bank for the employes who desired to have their government checks cashed. They were taken to the U. S. depository where they were cashed without hesitancy.

Eugene and Charlie Williams received the sad news the earlier part of the week of the sudden death of their father at Oregon City. He had visited them at the school some two weeks ago and was apparently in good health, but contracted pneumonia and died suddenly. Eugene and Charlie have the sympathy of their many friends.

AC - D - MIO

Rena Mann is one of the new choir singers.

Mrs. Campbell read a very interesting story to her pupils Monday.

Mrs. Chalcraft is reading her third grade a very interesting story.

The Junior Class is about through working partial payment problems now.

The eighth grade class have new writing books, and they are glad to have them.

The Seniors were very glad to welcome their class mates Joe and Alfred Lane Wednesday.

Hurrah! for the small boys. They were in their places in the 3rd room before the girls.

Louise Murray and Belle Dillstrom are absent from school this week owing to sickness. We hope they will soon be able to continue their studies.

Boys and girls should leave the school building in an orderly manner. After the morning and afternoon sessions the girls go first, but after study hours the boys should leave the building first.