

SOCIETIES

Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. gave a joint reception on Friday evening in the school auditorium, which was attended by the members and about one hundred and eighty of their friends. A very pleasant evening was spent in music and games; dainty refreshments were served.

ESTELLE REEL

The Estelle Reels met in No. 4, all members being present. The society is well organized and doing good work. Much credit is due Walter Haight, the out-going president, who did as effective work in the president chair as he did in the Relay Race. The present president Christina Lane is going right on with the good work. Mattie Zimmerman made a splendid secretary. The following program was rendered. Opening address, Mary Gibeau; Song, Barney Vincent, & Andrew Bittles; Riddles, Bessie Lahti; Debate, Resolved: that steamboats are of more benefit to man than railroads. Aff. Frank Cox, Willie Pratt; Neg. Walter Haight, Andrew Bittles, Gussie Cameron.

NONPAREIL

The Nonpareil Literary Society met in their usual place of meeting last Thursday. The house was called to order by the Vice President, and then old and new business were transacted, which was followed by a debate. The question being, Resolved, that Football causes more injury than any other game. Speakers were as follows: Aff. Levi Sorter, Matilda John, Calvin Darnell; Neg. Gordon Hobucket, Bessie Chiloquin, Martin Sampson. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative before we adjourned. Calvin Darnell was elected assistant reporter.

Left over Items

We are all glad that Thanksgiving is coming.

The girls all had an enjoyable time in town last Saturday.

We are all glad to have nice bread from the bakery.

Laura Wilson who is training to be a nurse seems to be doing fine.

I was glad to see so many of the last year school boys here on my return.

Some of the girls gave money to decorate the dining hall for Thanksgiving.

Last Thursday Mrs. Cooper took the senior class girls to visit the new bakery and Mr. Teabo explained all things to us.

Lizzie Frazier, class '07 arrived last Wednesday on the north bound train. She will attend the Willamette University.

Dolly C. So's piano solo was enjoyed last Thursday evening in the society entertainment. All the singers and players did fine.

Mrs. Cox has taken the geraniums from the geranium bed in front of the dining hall and has put them in boxes which were placed on shelves in the corners of the dining hall.

We are sorry to note the death of Philip Sooksoit, who died last Tuesday morning. The body was shipped on the north bound train last Wednesday morning to Warm Spring reservation, Oregon.

Wagons, harnesses, plows, harrows, etc are arriving at the Agency for the allottees. These benefits are being given them as per treaty, they having already received their cows and horses. So any one looking over at the Commissary would be under the impression that Mr. Baxter was busy. If you don't think so, ask him.—Ogalala Light.
