What are you thankful for?

Our boys who are learning trades are equipping themselves in the very best manner for a future life of usefulness and happiness.

Since starting to have a weekly enigma we have received many enigmas to publish, but as we can only publish one each week they must take their turn.

Julia Seletsie of the class of 1906 is now employed at Wadsworth, Nevada, and as Julia expresses it she "is now paddling her own Canoe". We are glad to note Julia's Success.

A Correction

In a recent issue of the AMERICAN we published a clipping from the LINCOLN JOURNAL which stated that it had announced that the Indian Institute would be held next year at Spokane, Washington. It appears that this is a mistake, the place of meeting for next year Institute has not as yet been decided.

Chemawa's Second Band

Chemawa's Juvenile Band, under the leadership of Assistant Disciplinarian Chas. Larsen, is at present constituted as follows: Edward Friedlander and Wm. Pratt, Claironet Bb; Chester Mecum, claironet E; Oscar Case, claironet alto; George Flett, tenor saxophone; Leon Reinkin, Baritone saxophone; Clarence Lewis, Baritone; Henry Darnell, Snare Drum; George Perry, Bass Drum; Miller Charles, Patsie Barrett, and Ben Bearchild, Altos Eb; Alden Clark, Tuba E b; Andrew Bittles, BBb bass; Moses Alverado and Thomas Case, Trombones; Loulio Brewer and Frank Souvigner BB cornets.
