

PUPILS' ITEMS

Thanksgiving turkey tasted very fine. We are glad to see Mary Boles out of the hospital.

Wm Major is now taking lessons on the accordion.

We are all glad that we are having warm weather.

Davis Miller is going to be a good snare drummer.

Mr Mann has gone to Klamath to get some new pupils.

We are all glad to see Louise Murray out of the hospital.

We are all glad to see Laura Cochran out of the hospital.

We are glad to see so many new pupils coming to Chemawa.

Nellie Shepard is working for Mrs. Chalcraft and likes her place.

We are all glad to see Allen McGibbons out of the hospital again.

Malvina Moxley, a new pupil from California, arrived last Monday.

David Rabbie is working at the garden and he said he likes it well.

We had a fire drill today at the school building. We all got out quickly.

Maud Lowry is now keeping house and she does her work very neatly.

Gussie Cameron is working in the dining hall and makes everything shine.

The football boys are glad to have Michel Wilson back again in their midst.

Lela Wilson is now working in the laundry. Lela is a very good ironer.

Howell Breeden is working in the kitchen. He seem to do his work well.

Alice McPherson is taking music lessons from Miss Dohse and is getting along nicely.

I am expecting Ethel Logan to be here about Friday or Saturday to attend school at Chemawa.

The members of the bible class met last Sunday and had their first lesson on the life of Christ.

The basketball girls are anxious to have a good team this year. We hope they have success.

There are a number of new members who have joined the band lately. We wish them success.

Emma Shepard is in the music club and plays on the mandolin and she practices every evening.

The girls who take lessons on the string instruments take much interest in learning how to play.

We all enjoyed the talk Mr. Chalcraft give us Monday evening about his trip to the Sound country.

Mr. Enright started from here on Saturday for Grande Ronde for a few more pupils from that point.

Neta Jones is working in the dining hall and she does her work very nicely for a little girl like her.

Hazel Picard is working on the floor. She is a very good worker and Miss Troutman is proud of her.

Josie Harris of the first grade gave riddles to the girls and boys of the 3rd grade and she gave it nicely.

Bessie Boles makes a very good assistant nurse at the hospital because she takes interest in every thing she does.

The electric line will soon be finished to Portland and we will be glad because we will have new up-to-date cars to ride in.
