

LOCALS

Ellen Tohett is one of Mrs. Theisz's good floor girls.

We are having fine weather in the month of December.

The potato patch east of the school building is all plowed.

We are all glad that we had such a good time Thanksgiving.

We are all glad to hear that Mr. Brewer is getting better.

Elsie Lewis is working in the laundry. Elsie does her work very neatly.

Mary Gibeau works in the sewing room and she does her work very neatly.

George Horn is getting to be a good blacksmith. He likes his trade very well.

We are all glad to see what a good house-keeper Neva Souvigner is getting to be.

Harriet Dick is making Melvinia Moxley a dress and does her work very neatly.

We hear that some more boys are coming from Washington and we are very glad.

I think most all the pupils enjoyed the Thanksgiving dinner. I know I did.—A pupil.

We had a fine Thanksgiving here at Chemawa. The turkey tasted fine and the cranberry sauce was delicious.

The gardeners are very busy hauling potatoes to the root house and plowing up the ground east of the school house.

Mr. James Offield of Fort Jones, came after his son-in-law, Harry Long, who has been ill for some time at Chemawa.

Mr. Johnson took some of our written work and drawing from the eighth grade room.

We hear quite a good deal of mandolin playing these days.

Frank Peters is well and is back at his trade in the carpenter shop.

The farmers have a large amount of work ahead of them before they will be through.

New pupils are arriving daily. We are looking for a party of twenty in a few days.

Mr. Ed. Smith has come to Chemawa as assistant engineer in Mr. James Smith's place.

Della Payne, who is working in the sewing room, is taking much interest in finishing up the boys' shirts.

Harry Long, who has been ill, went to his home at Fort Jones on Tuesday, accompanied by his stepfather.

Melvinia Moxley, who is a new pupil, is working in the sewing room. She takes much interest in learning how to sew.

It doesn't pay to run away boys. If we want you, we will get you, and you pay the piper. Be men, not naughty truants.

Now that we have a printer in charge of our printing force we expect an excellent paper. Look out for the next "Chemawa American."

Miss Troutman went to town yesterday and had Jennie Schutzhagen's picture enlarged and we were very glad to see Jennie's face once more.

Mary Loftus and Martha Andy made some fine biscuits in the Domestic Science room last week. They were enjoyed by all who sampled them.
