

PUPILS' ITEMS

We are glad that Christmas is coming soon.

Gabriel Peters is working on the garden detail.

We are having interesting lessons in the 4th grade.

Annie Buck says she likes to work for Mrs. Campbell.

Our dining room was nicely decorated on Thanksgiving day.

Milton Gadowa is a new member of the band. He plays cornet.

We were sorry to see Mr. James Smith, our plumber, leave the other day.

Mr. Swartz and Barney Vincent had a runaway last Monday afternoon.

The Y. M. C. A. intends to put out a strong basketball team this season.

Allen Walton is a new cornet player in the band. We wish him success.

Being that Thanksgiving has passed we are looking forward to Christmas.

The engineers are working hard getting ready to burn coal under the third boiler.

Clarinda Blodgett left for her home last Monday and is missed by her many friends.

Martin Hartless is the only boy on Mr. Hulden's p. m. detail and he is always on time.

Bessie Boles is becoming quite a nurse. Dr. Tucker is proud of her because she learns so fast.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewer have gone away for their health; they expect to be back by New Years.

We are all glad to see Willie Luke back in the school room.

The girls in the mandolin club are practicing every evening from six o'clock to seven o'clock.

Ethel Logan, a new pupil, is going to make her home at Chemawa. We all wish her success.

Esther Napoleon played a guitar solo for the eighth grade when they gave their Thanksgiving program.

Delia S. Clark, of the class of 1905, sent a subscription from Dunsmuir, Cal., for the Chemawa American.

Hazel Butler has taken Esther Napoleon's place in the second basketball team and plays very nicely.

Esther Napoleon is giving Dr. Tucker lessons on the guitar. We all hope he will soon be an expert player.

Ethel Logan, a new pupil who recently arrived, is now working in the sewing room and likes her work very much.

Harry Long, who was taken ill while visiting here, left for his home. We wish him success and speedy recovery.

We are all glad to see Evelyn McCoy back to school. She brought two pupils with her—Ethel Logan and Rachel McCoy.

Clarence Lewis assists Mr. Larsen a great deal in the office now-a-days and Mr. Larsen appreciates Clarence's assistance.

The members of the Y. W. C. A. had a very interesting meeting on Sunday evening. All the members were present.

A letter was received recently from Anita McLaughlin stating that she is in the best of health and having a good time.
