

INDUSTRIAL NOTES

Leon Reinken is working in the tailor shop.

Edward Friedlander is now working on the garden detail.

Thomas Andrews is a coal passer in the engine room at nights.

Alex Lee is working in the carpenter shop and he likes his work.

Aggie Shepard is now working in the laundry and she likes her work.

It was chilly in chapel on Sunday night because a careless boy neglected his work.

Joe Wiggins, who has been working in the bakery, is now working for Mr. Bowen on the lawn.

The plumbers were busy Tuesday morning taking a radiator out of Mrs. Cloutier's school room to repair it.

Violet Edwards made a very delicious dessert in the Domestic Science room, Monday. Prunes—a la Mt. Hood fashion.

Lizzie Beaver was left in charge of the sewing room Monday afternoon while Miss Brown attended to some business in town.

Engineers, be careful and do not let your pipes get full of water. An early morning "anvil chorus" is not appreciated.

We have a new plumber who just came in; we are glad to see him come in but we are sorry to see Jim Smith go away. But we hope he will have a good time wherever he goes.

The blacksmith force is headed by Wm. Watkins in the morning, and David O. Graham in the afternoon.

Rhoda Silverthorn, who has been working in the laundry for three weeks, is now working in the sewing room.

The sewing room girls have almost all the cheviot dresses made and it will not be long before they will be working on the uniforms.

Additional Locals

John Peazzoni arrived from California last week and he began to practice with the football team Monday.

John is one of our good football players and we are all glad to see him back at Chemawa again.

Chemawa's basketball team played the mute school on Saturday. Score 37 to 4 in favor of Chemawa.

We hear that the Carlisle team may come out to the Pacific coast to play football. We will give them a royal welcome if they will visit Chemawa.

The first basketball game of the season was played Saturday afternoon between the Mutes of Salem and Chemawa.

Kit and George, Chemawa's largest farm team, started to run home from the lower farm, but were caught by a farmer on the road.

The seventh and eighth grades had a very interesting program on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving, which was enjoyed by all.

The members of the Nonpareil Society are very energetic. Some of the members have come to the committee to ask to be put on the program. That shows what the society will be in the future.
