NONPAREIL

The regular meeting of the Nonpareil Literary Society on last Thursday was well attended. After the roll was called the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The following program was rendered: Opening address, Martin Sampson; vocal solo, Henry Darnell; pen picture, Matilda John; violin solo, Martin Sampson; current events, Calvin Darnell.

The debate, "Resolved that the Sailors endure greater hardships than the Soldiers." Affirmative, Gordon Hobucket, Addie Cameron, and Edward McClellan won the decision over their opponents, Webster Hudson, Anna Buck and Joaquin Meadows. The judges were Martin Sampson, Bessie Boles and Minnie Howard.

Mr. Enright, our critic, gave a very instructive talk in the line of literary work. Eugene Williams was admitted to the society.

EXCELSIOR

At the last meeting of the Excelsior Literary Society an election of officers was held.

President, Thos. McCully; Vice President, Peter Seltioe; Secretary, Lizzie Beaver; Treasurer, Harry Queachpaima; Sergeant-at-arms, Amos Smoker; and committees for different purposes are to be appointed at the next meeting.

After the election it was decided to challenge the Nonpareil for a series of three debates; two out of three for victory. As the Nonpareil being adjourned when the challenge was sent it was suggested to hand the message to the President: so we shall know their opinion on the matter by the next meeting.

Great interest has been shown by the members in every meeting so we can almost see that the Excelsior is slowly coming to the front. We are confident, with the material we have this year that our society work will be a credit to the school and an honor to the members.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. held their meeting in their usual place last Wednesday evening. The Secretary called the roll after which the song "Jesus Savior Pilot me" was sung. Bessie Chilouquin led in prayer. Another song, "Where is my boy Tonight" was sung.

The topic for the evening was, "What shall we give to Jesus," of which Belle Dillstrom led. Different members spoke upon the subject. They then repeated their Watchword and adjourned.

NOT AT CHEMAWA

The young ladies of the art department are acquiring great dexterity at "rugging," but not so in handling sharp knives. The emergency department of the hospital is kept busy doing up cut thumbs. Come and see the designs materialize.—The Arrow.
