Be polite. Never forget it even if others are rude to you. A real gentleman is always polite.

When girls march to the dining room the sergeants should see that they are in good line. One of the first and most important duties of a sergeant is to drill her company in good marching.

It is important for every boy and girl, no matter how small, to set a good example to their fellow students. Indians are great imitators and habits formed while young will stay with us thru life.

February twenty-fifth next Chemawa will reach her twenty-eighth mile stone. Why not celebrate the event by the return to the school of those who have been prepared for life's work within her walls? The American would be glad to hear from her ex-students as to what they think of the idea.

Mrs. Duncan McArthur, wife of Superintendent McArthur, died at Pala, Cal., on Sept. 22. Mrs. McArthur had been engaged in Indian work for a long time and her loss to the service will be felt by all its friends.

Mr. McArthur was Superintendent of Siletz about three years ago.

By a post card to Superintendent Chalcraft we learn that C. R. Gillman (Clifford Coonskin) has returned from the Philippines and is now stationed at Ft. Mead, South Dakota. Clifford has at least seen the world and we trust that he is benefited by his experiences.

The true "Carlisle spirit" was manifest on the athletic field Saturday afternoon while the report of the Chicago game was coming in. Could our boys on Marshall Field have seen the student body, and heard the yells as play after play was pulled off, the score would have been doubled on the Idians' side. Belenti's good work was especially well received and applauded.—The Arrow.

BAND NOTES

Silas Albert is doing pretty good work.

Mr. Enright is practicing on the Eb clarinet.

Alex Cajete is doing very well on the solo Bb clarinet.

Mike Telkia has joined the band and will play Bb cornet.

The band promises us some good concerts in the chapel as soon as some new concert music arrives.

Laura Wilson who has been working in the hospital for some time is getting to be a very good nurse.

Big snows back at Carlisle. Wewonder what they would say if they could see our beautiful lawns and rosebushes full of lovely roses.
