Richard Harris is leading a brass band of 24 pieces near Juneau.

John Benson spent most of the summer and fall in Alaska and has now returned to Seattle.

On last Saturday Hoxie Simmons and his wife, who was Lizzie Similie, paid the school a visit. Both Mr. Simmons and his wife are ex-pupils of Chemawa and are nicely located on the Siletz.

We have received an excellent cartoon from W. J. Harris (John), from Juneau, Alaska, which will be held for the anniversary number, February 25. A letter received contains the sad information of the death of his father in Portland in October, and the body is now on the way to Juneau for burial. The old-timers of that section of the country are preparing a big reception in his honor, as Mr. Harris and John were the first discoverers of that part of the country.

Athletics

The first team is hard at practice for the coming games during the holidays.

Our junior basketball team met with defeat at the hands of the Salem Y. M. C. A. juniors Saturday night at Salem. The score was 26 to 13.

We were sorry to hear that our first basketball team was defeated last Saturday by the Woodburn High School by the score of 38 to 19.

SOCIETIES

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. held their meeting in McBride Hall last Wednesday evening. They opened their meeting by singing "Holy Spirit Hear Us." Roll was then called, the members responding with Bible verses. Esther Napoleon played a piano solo. The topic for the evening was "Work," in which Miss Bowman led. Each member talked on the topic, and had a very interesting meeting. Another song "Yield Not to Temptation" was sung, and followed by a season of prayer. Dolly Case played a piano solo, and after that they sang another song, repeated their watchword and adjourned.
