Mr. Hatt of Salem was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell on Sunday.

Holly wreaths are selling for $1.50 apiece in Salem—pretty expensive.

We hear there are some pretty new dresses to be worn on Christmas day.

Mr. Oliver Gibeau will arrive tonight from Flathead Agency with eleven pupils for Chemawa.

Mr. Brewer is in a hospital at Tacoma. We all hope that he will soon recover and be able to return to Chemawa.

The girls and boys are bringing out the most delightful and mysterious looking "bumpy" parcels. What can they contain?

Charles Payne arrived last evening from Tekoa with Thomas Gregory, Mary S. Gregory, and Christine Victor, who were enrolled.

Mr. Turner, the new printer, is a fine musician. He is giving the girls music lessons who are practicing on the string instruments.

Henry Orlstrom, '07, attends Willamette University in the mornings and works for Mr. Greget in the afternoon clearing land.

Eugene Williams seems to have some very important work to do at the teachers' dining room. What would we do without our faithful Eugene?

We are all glad to hear of the recent marriage of Irene Peene, a former pupil of Chemawa, to Mr. Gilbert Carrier. We all wish them a happy life.

A letter from Aline DeMers stated that her mother died the second of this month. We are very sorry to hear of her death and extend our sympathies to the father and children.

Thomas McCully received a telegram which called him to Portland the early part of the week to see his father and sister. Tom had not seen them for years and was wondering if they would know him.

Mr. Landing and his family are all down sick, and on Sunday morning they asked for help, as they had no wood cut. Mr. Chalcraft called for volunteers and Hugh Jackson and John McCush volunteered.

An acceptable Xmas present would be to send your friends a year's subscription to the Chemawa American. You can place the subscription at the office, then write your friends and tell them you have sent the American to them for one year for a Christmas present.

Mrs. McMarshall, who was formerly Miss Mand Hirsch and well known at Chemawa, and Miss Ella Hirsch were guests of Mrs. Campbell on Sunday. Mrs. McMarshall who has been living in Columbus, Ohio, since her marriage will now live in Portland where her husband is in business.

Mr. Antoine Calise, wife and family, and Miss Effie Woods, cousin of Mr. Calise, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Farrow, Tuesday evening, stopping over at Chemawa to see their many friends before leaving for Los Angeles, where they will make their future home. Mr. Calise's many friends were glad to see him and Mrs. Calise. Byron, their little son, has grown to quite a boy, but is as popular as ever, notwithstanding the fact that since his sojourn in Washington, D. C., he dispensed with his beautiful locks of curly hair. Their many friends wish them much success and happiness in their southern home.
