

INDIAN LEGEND

Continued from Page one,

and was very much surprised to see the sun once more. After that he used sunflowers for his eyes. Every time they would begin to wilt he would put fresh flowers in the place of the withered ones.

He stayed in that condition until one day he found a snail out hunting. He took the snail's eyes out and placed them in his, giving the snail the sunflower for his eyes, which by this time was not very good, and left him lost out in the woods. Since then the snail has had poor eyes. The coyote went on and had many more adventures, but as he was always so very cunning, he always came out ahead. As you know, the coyote is a cunning animal at the present time

LOCALS

CONTINUED

Beautiful roses are still in bloom.

When are you going to Portland on the new trolley line?

We had a male quartet sing in the chapel on Sunday night.

Sam McCush made a hammer in the blacksmith shop recently.

The new path from the hospital to the "gym" is a great improvement.

Mrs. Campbell and Miss Irene made a flying visit to Portland this week.

Mrs. Campbell entertained the Spokane Club informally on Friday evening.

Violet Berner seems glad to get back at Chemawa and her friends are glad to welcome her.

Miss Irene Campbell entertained Miss Thompson of Salem and Mr. Curtis Coleman of the U. of O. on Saturday.

The rain on Saturday did not interfere with the game as many Salem people were interested and enthusiastic spectators.

We are having some fine entertainments in our assembly room. Fine music is elevating as well as pleasure giving.

We enjoyed the musical entertainment which was given by the Bohemian Students' Quintette of Salem last Saturday evening.

Miss Noble says this is the happiest Christmas she has passed for years. That is right. Miss Noble, Chemawa makes us all happy and contented.

Colonel Randlett, in a letter to Mrs. Campbell, sent Christmas greetings to all of his old friends at Chemawa and wishes us all a happy and prosperous New Year.

All eyes are now turned upon the new hospital. It is almost ready for occupancy. We don't want any one to get sick, but won't that hospital be a lovely place to be sick in?

Mr. Donald Campbell, of the "Spokane Chronicle," greatly enjoyed his visit at Chemawa. He noticed many improvements and predicts a great future for the Chemawa School.

Mr. George Varnell, the physical director of the S. A. A. C., and Joe Malcolmson of the same club, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell during their stay at Chemawa.

Mr. Herbert J. Campbell, sporting editor of the "Spokane Chronicle," left Chemawa with the Spokane Athletic Club on Saturday night. Mr. Campbell is umpire for the club and officiated again at the Seattle game on New Year's Day.