Mr. Beck gave a short but interesting talk in chapel Wednesday evening.—Native American.

Mr. Pierce, son of the Superintendent of the Flandreau Indian school, is visiting at the school.—Native American.

The pupils in room No. 4 are having very interesting lessons on the different breeds of cattle—the dairy and beef breeds.—Native American.

Miss Lavina Cornelius, recently appointed nurse at Flandreau, arrived Thursday afternoon and has taken up her duties at the hospital, Miss Cornelius comes from the Oneida School, Wisconsin.—Weekly Review.

The farmers have finished butchering the hogs this forenoon, that we are to have for our Christmas dinner. The boys engaged in the work got fried liver at dinner, for their trouble.—Weekly Review.

The talk Mr. Smith gave the seniors and juniors on telegraphy was very interesting. During his talk he explained the use of the instrument and also mentioned a few of the hardships of a telegrapher.—Weekly Review.

Miss Stella Robins, who has been the successful music teacher at Haskell for twelve years, has resigned her position. She is now with her sister at 1604 Ellis Avenue, Chicago. Her Haskell friends wish her success and happiness in her new home.—Indian Leader.

A strong flow of water has been struck in one of the big artesian wells being sunk at Lake Andes, Yankton Reservation. While the drill has just penetrated the top of the water bearing strata, and a flow of 8000 gallons per minute secured a much stronger flow is expected.—Weekly Review.

Eight large Mission chairs and three benches were taken to the Ramona Home sitting room on Friday by the carpenters. The Teepee sitting room will be the next one to be fitted up.—Sherman Bulletin.

An exciting game between two S. A. B. basket ball teams on Thursday evening of last week was won by the Reds. The members of the team are Louise and Anna Hauser, Ella Trudo, Jennie McCauley and Susie Downing.—Indian Leader.

The gang of carpenters who are working for the contractor on the new buildings "struck" last Wednesday on account of there being a nonunion foreman in charge of the work. It is understood that they also objected to Indian boys working on the job.—Sherman Bulletin.

We are glad to notice how satisfactory Crawford Coleman is to the contractor in his work upon the new buildings. He seldom waits to be told what to do, but anticipates and turns out good, honest work each day. He was accosted by a fellow workman and cautioned against working too hard, but Crawford did not pay any attention to such advice.—Sherman Bulletin.

Col. Jones, for several years past Supt. of the Cheyenne School, has resigned, to take effect the last of July. He has been in the government service nineteen years fifteen of which have been as school superintendent. Commissioner Leupp wrote him a very nice letter in appreciation of his long and faithful service in this capacity, in accepting his resignation. Mrs. Jones, who is matron, and has done efficient and faithful work, will also leave at that time. They retire from the service. Their many friends regret to learn this, but wish them happiness and contentment in their well-earned rest.—The Indian Outlook.
