

PUPILS' ITEMS

Ethel Logan is taking interest in the sewing room.

We are glad to see Patsy Loftus out of the hospital.

We are glad that Katie Holland is out of the hospital.

Viola Ferris is becoming an expert basketball player.

Violet Berner made a quick trip to Portland on business.

Let us search our brains for old legends, and put them on paper.

We third grade girls are glad to have Mary Gregory in our class.

The boys are now getting ready for another football game Saturday.

Moses Alvarado is working on the farm. He says he likes his work.

The pupils of the seventh grade are getting down to hard work this year.

We all hope to see our gymnasium finished so we can have some exercise.

Tillie Horn is orderly in the big sewing room and she says she likes it well.

Alice Sam is now working in the sewing room. She is pleased with the place.

Mrs. Theisz gathered some roses for the mess dining hall. They looked very nice.

Mary Boles said that she was glad to see Myrtle Berner come back to school again.

The fifth grade pupils are all glad to have Charlie Michell enter their class again.

Helen Fairfield made some fine biscuits last week in the Domestic Science building.

I am glad to be back at Chemawa with my girl friends and especially to be in school.

Lizzie Frazier, the fifth grade pupil teacher, takes much interest in teaching her pupils.

We are all glad to see Louise Dionne back to school after spending Christmas at her home.

Floyd Hayden is one of the school building firemen and he will keep the school rooms warm.

In a new addition to the band we have a trombone player by the name of William Friedlander.

Thomas Andrews can play some good tunes on his new Violin. Among them are some Indian songs.

We are now having very fine weather for the month of January. We hope it will be with us for a while.

The carpenter boys are busy cleaning the gymnasium so that carpenters can do their work more comfortably.

James Minesinger and Ed. Ainsworth fixed the little engine behind the boilers which is used for forced draft.

Violet Edwards is getting to be quite a nurse now since she has been working in the drug room in Laura Wilson's absence.

Rhoda Silverthorn stays in her room all of her spare time crocheting lace. That is certainly a good example of not wasting time.

Nettie Corrasco went up town with her brother Willie, Saturday. They had their pictures taken together to send to their father.