Caroline Wright is making Jane Bailey a very pretty skirt.

We all enjoyed the New Year's social in the gymnasium last week.

The Industrial boys are making a sidewalk to the new hospital.

The Fifth and Sixth Grades have a new teacher who came last week.

Rosie Chalifone, a former pupil of Chemawa, died last week at her home in Saginaw, Oregon.

The blacksmiths organized a football team last Monday and are now practicing for their game tomorrow.

The entertainments that were given during the holidays were very interesting and much enjoyed by all.

Ida Johnson and Helen Fairfield made a very delicious peach pie Monday in the domestic science.

The girls of the small sewing room are working hard to finish the new sheets for McBride Hall this week.

Many of the pupil's parents spent the holidays here, which made the time more pleasant for children and parents.

The sewing room girls will begin to make the hickory dresses as soon as they are through with the other dresses.

Gertrude Kettlewood took the first prize in the Indian story contest, and Apis Goudy and Peter Seltice the second.

We all enjoyed sitting up and watching the Old Year pass out and the New Year come in on New Years eve at McBride Hall.

The engineers are anxiously waiting for time to come for a game of basketball with the blacksmiths, whom they hope to defeat.

It was the first time I spent my Xmas and New Years without snow on the ground, and it was a very pleasant holiday season for me.

Mrs. Cloutier had some beautiful roses in a glass on her school room table today. There are roses in bloom now on Chemawa's lawn.

Orin French, who has been away from school for some time, returned the first of the month and his many friends were glad to see him back.

On New Years day all the tables of the mess were decorated with roses which were gathered by Mrs. Theisz and her girls around McBride Hall.

The old barn is rapidly being remodeled and when completed will not only be commodious enough for all kinds of athletic sports, but will also be picturesque.

Some one has said that among kind people we are refreshed by the kindness. It is true. So let us be kind to any one we meet. Our education is not much without kindness.

The Sixth Grade found the class room not in good condition on the first day of school in the year of 1908. The boys got in and cleaned the room out very nice, beginning the new year properly.

We ought to congratulate the football boys for the good work they have done this season. They have only played eight games this season and won five of them. Chemawa expects to have a good team next year and have a regular schedule with different colleges.

The baker boys are learning their trade well. They are all able to perform duties in the bakery without instructions. Pedro Chevio, from the Philippine Islands, seems to be progressing nicely, and is leading his fellow apprentices.
