

PUPILS' ITEMS

William Watkins is doing fine in his studies.

Dora Gray visited Chemawa last Tuesday.

The big pump in the deep well is running again.

Albert Scott is studying hard to make the seventh grade.

The tailors' basketball team is going to have new suits.

We had some fine music in the chapel last Monday night.

We are glad to have Eva Simmons back in school again.

The blacksmith boys are very busy at work sorting bolts.

Mrs. Theisz has a little stove in her room to keep her warm.

We are promised another phonograph concert in the near future.

Mike Telkia is doing fine for a new comer in the sixth grade.

The plumbers hope that Joe Lane will soon be out of the hospital.

Mrs. Campbell is reading "Black Beauty" to the seventh grade.

The pupils of the Junior class are glad that their examination is over.

The eighth grade is happy because they have got some new books.

Dean Walker is now working in the dairy. He says he likes his work.

The Senior Class is now working in measurement of solids in arithmetic.

Sallie Boswell is working in the dining hall and her work is done neatly.

The Seniors held a class meeting last Monday morning and elected officers.

We have a new 8-horse power engine in the power house to run the blower.

Lillie Burns is working in Miss Skipton's sewing room and likes her work.

The System Bible Class had a very interesting meeting last Sunday evening.

The laundry girls will not get through this week on account of having no steam.

Mr. Cooper entertained the pupils with his graphophone last Monday evening.

There is a little new engine in the power house, which was put in last Saturday.

Mrs. Theisz has a nice oil stove which can be used when the radiators refuse to work.

Edward Williams is getting to be a good tree pruner although he just started in this year.

Grace Beaver is working in the laundry this week and she does her work very neatly.

Miss Alene Thompson, of Salem, was Miss Campbell's guest on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

We are all glad to hear that Clara Wilson, her two sisters and brothers will soon return to Chemawa.

Caroline Wright made pies in the domestic science room yesterday. All report them as being excellent.

Dora Aubrey, who has attended school at Haskell Institute, is now here and she brought Maggie Goss with her.

A friend received a letter from Martha Miller, an ex-pupil of Chemawa, giving information of her recent marriage to Ruff Civil.