

Left-Over Items

The farm boys were hauling bran last Monday.

Myrtle Berner is one of Mrs. Theisz's new floor girls.

Dean Walker is now working on the dairy boys' detail.

James Robinson is getting to be a pretty good tailor.

We are glad to see Eva Simmons back to school again.

Ask Myrtle Berner what she means by, "It's all off with us."

William Fisher is in the sixth grade. He likes his teacher well.

Russel White Bear is training for the long distance run nowadays.

David High Penny is now working for Mr. Cox in the butcher shop.

Leon Reinkin made a pretty souvenir cap in the tailor shop last Monday.

The fifth grade girls take much interest in their domestic science class.

Edward McClellan is a good hand at sorting bolts in the blacksmith shop.

We are all pleased with the fine weather we are having at the present time.

Harriet Dick is still working in the sewing room, and she is getting along nicely.

A new supply of coal for the school came recently and is being hauled to the coal shed.

Miss Troutman says Louise Blodgett is one of the best, brightest babies in the small girls' home.

Thomas Andrews and William Bressette are experts in singing Indian songs. Who said Thomas and William can't sing?

Peter Casey was visiting the school last week for a few days. He is a member of the class of '07.

William Burke is beginning to learn a tenor saxophone. He says he is going to be an expert player.

Eva Simmons, who has just returned to Chemawa from her short vacation, is now working in the sewing room.

Clara, Emma, Wallace and Willie Wilson returned to school last Monday morning from McCloud, California.

The new hospital is completed and the hospital force are moving things over there, so it will soon be occupied.

Thomas Holden and Edward McClellan are hard at work in the wagon shop making a small wagon for Eddie Mann.

Messrs. Chalcraft and Larson, with several boys, went to Tacoma, Washington, and attended the funeral of D. E. Brewer.

We are all glad to see Thomas Powers back in school again after his absence of a few weeks visiting his parents in California.

The Chemawa basketball team defeated the Woodburn team by a score of 22 to 12 last Saturday evening on our own floor.

Moses Alvarado is studying hard in the sixth grade. He says he is going to try to make the seventh grade before school lets out.

Mr. Bowen and his force of boys made a cinder path from the north side of the Large Boys' Home to the north side of the plumber shop.

Monday morning the pupils of the senior class were honored by a visit from Chemawa's mascot, "Spot," who came in and made himself at home by the radiator.