

PUPILS' ITEMS

Willie Fisher is in the sixth grade.

The tailors are still busy with underwear.

The blacksmiths have been busy sorting bolts.

George Washoe left for Prosser, Wash., Monday night.

The boys are now sand-papering the new hospital floor.

Alex Arquette intends to learn how to play basketball.

Gussie Cameron is now working at Mrs. Campbell's.

We are glad to see big Joe and Peter Casey back to school again.

Carl Stone is working for Mrs. Doherty. He is a good house keeper.

Eugene Williams and Lee Evans are busy oiling the new hospital floor.

Minerva Mecum is one of Mrs. Thiez's floor girls and does her work very neatly.

Lives of great men all remind us,
We can make our lives sublime,
And departing leave behind us,
Footprints on the sands of time.

—Longfellow

This verse of Mr. Longfellow is true regarding Mr. Brewer and his many friends.

Willie Luke, who has been sick in the hospital for some time, is back in school again.

Thomas Mullings is now working in the wagon shop and likes his work very much.

We all expect to see Mr. Campbell back soon with some new pupils from Thomas Peters took his first lesson in horseshoeing yesterday in the blacksmith shop.

The eighth grade is just finishing denominate numbers in the higher arithmetic.

We are all glad to see Clara and Emma Wilson back to school with their sister Minnie.

James Olney is practicing on the cornet. We are all glad to have him in the first band.

Miss Brown gave her sewing room girls a lesson in drafting a skirt pattern Tuesday morning.

There was some very nice music given in McBride Hall last evening by a number of girls.

The gardeners have finished pruning the prune orchard and will work in the apple orchard next.

The tailor boys in the morning class have a very interesting and instructive lesson on grafting every morning.

The other day the farm boys took a ride down to the lower farm to have a look at it and found it very muddy.

The Seniors and Juniors had a class meeting Monday evening to make arrangements for the annual party, Feb. 14.

Margaret Lowry stood the highest of the junior class in the quarterly examination, her average being 97 per cent.

The girls of the string Instrument Club are getting along fine; they expect to give us an entertainment some time in the near future.

Mr. Derby and some of his engineer boys babbed the boxings of the fan in the power house which were burned out last week.