

PUPILS' ITEMS

Minnie Picard is making herself a new dress.

Some of the boys are plowing at the lower farm.

The school has received some more coal for the engine room.

The seventh grade is working in decimal fractions.

Monday night we heard some fine music in the chapel.

The blacksmith boys are busy fixing a railroad for the power house.

The gardeners are through pruning and now they are taking it easy.

Frank Cox is a good hand at the plow. He did his first plowing Monday.

Miss Howard took Bessie Lahr and Lizzie Beaver to Salem, Saturday.

We have now 300 sacks of flour in the bakery, which will last for a while.

We did a great deal of extra work in practical questions, and in fractions.

Some girls at Washington are planning to come and stay at Chemawa.

Lela Wilson and Annie Evans are getting to be good basketball players.

Anthony Morrell is working on the garden detail. He is a good worker.

Dollie Case is working in the sewing room and is learning to sew very nicely.

William Bressett is passing coal this week at night and he is a good worker.

Some of the girls went for a pleasant walk with Miss Bowman last Sunday.

Thomas Mullings is working in the wagon shop. He does his work very neatly.

Arthur Bensell and his father were over here to visit Adella Payne last Sunday.

Lela Wilson is a member of the Estelle Reel society. Lela is a good debater.

Mattie Hayden is working in the sewing room and she likes Miss Brown as an instructor.

Violet Edwards is working in both the hospital drug-room and ward. Violet is a good worker.

Mike Campbell, a young man from Desmet, Idaho, returned home to his parents Monday.

The engineers are now burning coal so there will be no crying for steam at McBride Hall.

The boys' gymnasium will soon be finished. Mr. Cairo and Mr. Denny Smith are doing fast work.

The shoemakers are busy repairing shoes this week and they are to have an easy time after this.

A letter has been received from Ellen Kinley stating that she is to be married the first of February.

Miss Royer took a few girls out for a pleasant walk last Sunday. They enjoyed the sunshine very much.

We all enjoyed the lessons which our teacher, Mrs. Chalcraft, gave us, especially in our reading and arithmetic.

Sarah Matthews is now working in the laundry and she says she enjoys working there because Mrs. Woods is so nice.

Mrs. Bewley was absent one day last week on account of her sister being ill in Salem. She went to take care of her.

Laura Harnden knows many pretty new songs, which we enjoy to hear her sing to us in the evenings. She has a very nice voice.