Captain Charles Brown returned from Seldovia on the Bertha just in time to eat dinner with his daughter, Ofdotia, before she left for Oregon.—Orphanage News Letter.

Mrs. Brabant, a newspaper writer of several years' experience, visited Haskell the latter part of December and early part of this month. She was greatly interested, as it was her first visit to a large Indian Training School. She left for the south on January 9.—The Indian Leader.

Wm. Anywash has been appointed assistant to the disciplinarian and took hold of the work Monday morning. William has been a pupil here for nearly six years and during the last four years has been major of the batallion, so he is familiar with the duties of his new position.—The Weekly Review.

Our old assistant superintendent, W. M. Peterson, is busy allotting land to the Indians of Neah Bay, Washington. He will soon be through with his work there. Will wager a bet that these allotments will never be the subject of future criticism by any one. Mr. Peterson never fails to "make good."—Indian School Journal.

Maj. W. A. Mercer has resigned the superintendency of Carlisle and will return to his regiment as soon as he is relieved. He has had a long and honorable service at Indian Agencies and schools, his first detail being as agent of LaPointe agency, at Ashland, Wisconsin, in 1892, while he was yet Lieutenant Mercer. Major Mercer took charge at Carlisle upon the resignation of General Pratt, who left July 1, 1905.—Native American.

The basketball squad is practicing every afternoon now and there is some quite promising material. There will be a practice game Saturday. Games have been arranged with the Phoenix high school for February 15 and March 7. Games are also being arranged with the University of Arizona at Tucson, some to be played here and some at Tucson. The first game with Tempe Normal take place at Tempe, January 25.—Native American.

With pleasure we have read of the conversions, baptisms and organization of churches among the Hopi Indians in Arizona. Eleven baptisms have been reported and one church established at the Second Mesa where Mr. Coe labored and one at first Mesa where Mrs. Coe worked before they were called to the Orphanage. May God give courage and strength to his children to enable them to endure the persecutions of the unbelievers.—Orphanage News Letter.

A fault that begins early in life and prevails among both men and women, is the constitutional dislike for shouldering the blame for a mistake. Hardly a day passes but some error occurs that we are undoubtedly to blame for, yet how quickly we exclaim: "It wasn't our fault," and some innocent party has to take the punishment. It's a serious mistake and has prevented many an otherwise good man from getting on in the world. When you know you are in the wrong acknowledge the fact in a manly way, and then see that it does not occur again.—Ex.

The Juniors and Seniors are planning for their party which will be given the 14th of February. We are all looking forward to it.
