CHALLENGE

To the Reliance Literary Society:-

The Estelle Reece Literary Society challenge the Reliance Literary Society for a public debate, to take place in the chapel.

ANNIE EVANS, Pres.
GRACE BEAVER, Sec.

RELIANCE

The Reliance Society met in their room Thursday evening. The house was called to order by the president. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. There being no old business we proceeded with the following program:—Song, Helen Fairfield; Song, Minnie Picard; debate, "Resolved that education is of more benefit to mankind than wealth." Decision in favor of the affirmative.

NONPAREIL

The Nonpareils met in the chapel last Thursday evening to have a program only, so after the roll was called they proceeded with the program, which was as follows: Opening address, Calvin Darnell; Piano solo, Dollie Case; Reading, Bessie Boles; Vocal solo, Bessie Chiloquin; Recitation, George Flett; Song, Male Quartette; Comic reading, Levi Sortor; Reading, Rena Mann; Piano duet, Addie Cameron and Dollie Case; Vocal solo, Louise Murray; Closing address, Joaquin Meadows. The piano duet was probably the best on the program. After the program we adjourned all pleased with the entertainment.

Y. M. C. A.

The members of the Young Men's Christian Association held a meeting last Wednesday evening. The following was the order of our program:

Song, "Ring the Bells of heaven;" Prayer, Peter Seltice; Song, "It is well with my Soul;" Suggestions, President; Song, "Nearer to Thee," Y. M. C. A. Quartette; Addresses, "Character" John McCush, Apis Goudy and Harry Queachpalma; Song, "I am Thine O Lord;" Business Transactions; Song, "God be with You;" and a Prayer by Albert Garry.

All the boys who had their names enrolled on the membership list are requested to be at our next meeting, as there is more business to be transacted for the benefit of the affairs of our association.

Athletics

The Chemawa Y. M. C. A. basketball team went down to defeat at Monmouth college, Saturday night, in a score of 30 to 10.

Our first team was defeated by the Monmouth basketball team last Saturday and our second team defeated "the Mutes" last Saturday.

The second Y. M. C. A. team went to the Mute school last week and had a hard game. The score was 34 to 32 in our favor.

Some of the boys are training at night for the spring relay race.

Some of the boys are already beginning to play base ball.

Last Saturday afternoon a game of baseball was played by two pick-up teams of the school.

The tailor basketball team are accepting a hard game with the Y. M. C. A. Juniors of the school next Tuesday night in the school gymnasium.
