

LOCALS

Mrs. Campbell spent Saturday in Portland.

Sunday is Ground Hog Day. Look-out for the hog.

Edward Ainsworth left for Portland Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Campbell gave the seventh grade a practical talk this week.

As Sunday was a very nice day, a number of girls went out walking.

We had some sacred music on Mr. Hatt's phonograph on Sunday evening.

Miss Irene Howard of Salem is filling the position of Assistant Clerk temporarily.

Did you ever taste such good sandwiches as they had at the eighth grade party?

Mr. Kirby, who coached our football team last season, paid Chemawa a visit Sunday.

Mrs. Chalcraft is enjoying a visit from her friend, Miss Abbie Eells, of Tacoma, Washington.

Stanley Pedro, an old student, has returned to school and has entered the Junior Class.

Mr. Ed. Bensell and his son, Arthur, of Siletz, were here visiting Adella Payne last week.

Pickering Chalcraft and Geo. Doherty spend many pleasant hours after school hunting for game, birds, etc.

Violet Berner and Bessie Chiloquin are practicing some very nice duets on the piano. They will play for the party to be given by the Seniors and Juniors February 14th.

Fred Lewis went to Monmouth last Saturday with the first basketball team and reports having had a fine time.

A letter from Mrs. Brewer informs us that Gertrude is not well and they are anxious to get back to Chemawa again.

Mr. Smith and Mr. Derby are measuring for a new electric wire line from the power house to Mr. Henderson's store.

Mrs. Bullard and her girls can be seen out walking these pleasant sunshiny days, and how the girls enjoy these walks.

The stereopticon views of the magnificent peaks of Oregon and Washington were very good on Monday night and were enjoyed by our students.

Miss Jennie H. Royer entered upon her duties as teacher Monday morning and is very enthusiastic over her pupils, and change from office work to the school room.

The eighth grade pupils thank Mr. Derby for fixing the electric lights in the auditorium. Harry Jones arranged the string of lights which added so much to the beautiful effect.

Mr. Campbell left for Montana on Saturday morning. He will get some pupils for our school. Mrs. Campbell accompanied him as far as Portland and returned to Chemawa on Sunday morning.

---

ANNOUNCEMENT

The American takes pleasure in announcing the coming marriage of two of the most popular employes at Chemawa, Miss Lucy N. Jones, Clerk, to Mr. Edwin A. Smith, Assistant Engineer. The wedding will take place in the School Chapel on Wednesday, February 12, 1908, at 7 P. M.