

PUPILS' ITEMS

John McCush is now a sergeant in company C.

Miss Bowman took some girls out for a walk Sunday afternoon.

The hospital girls are anxious to move into the new hospital.

We are glad to have two new boys in our schoolroom this week.

The harness-makers are working outside this week helping Mr. Bowen.

The firemen are having an easy time firing since they got the new coal.

Viola Ferris sang a song in her class room Tuesday. She has a good voice.

We are having some very cold mornings of late, but very beautiful, bright days.

Adella Payne and Ethel Logan went to town Sunday and had a very nice time.

Audie Cameron joined the mandolin club; she is going to learn to play the violin.

Annie Johnson, who was working in the dining hall, is now working in the laundry.

Mary Campbell is working in the sewing room and is getting to be quite a dressmaker.

Sallie Boswell made some delicious biscuits in the Domestic Science department this week.

The tailor boys have their basketball uniforms completed and are ready for their third victory.

Laura Harnden made some very nice biscuits last week in the Domestic Science department.

I found on my return to Chemawa that the school grounds had changed a great deal in three years.

Matilda John made some fine Uncle Ned gingerbread, in the cooking class Tuesday morning.

Mary Anna Lane makes the corridors of McBride Hall ring with music when she plays on her guitar of evenings.

Oscar Case is working for Mr. Swartz. He says that he likes to work on the farm. Mr. Swartz says he is a good worker.

The hospital girls are anxious to move into the new hospital so they can have their new uniform suits made. The nurses' uniforms will be very pretty.

A, B, and C companies are looking forward to a competition drill. There will be a trophy awarded the company that shows the greatest efficiency when on parade.

George Baker went out hunting Saturday afternoon and he shot a snipe one hundred yards away in the swamp. He says he is going to shoot snipes every Saturday afternoon after this.

The boys who do not belong to either of the two teams of the Y. M. C. A. have organized a basketball team in which they think they can do better than the Y. M. C. A. teams have done. They will have a chance to show what they can do. They will play the second team and if they take the scalps of the second team they will have the chance to take the scalps of the first team. If they win from the first and second Y. M. C. A. teams let them talk. If they lose may they forever hold their peace.
