

PUPILS' ITEMS

The detail in Mitchell Hall was changed this week.

Antoine Francis is getting to be a very good harnessmaker.

Chemawa was visited by a slight fall of snow last Monday.

Hazel Picard is now working on the floor at McBride Hall.

Edward Ainsworth is running the engine at night this week.

Davis Miller is now working in the engineering department.

Keep yourselves wrapped up when out in the cold and your feet dry.

We were all glad to see snow on the ground last Monday morning.

The basketball boys are glad to see Apis Goudy back in the game again.

Changeable weather! snow, rain, sunshine! This happened in one day.

The boys on the farm detail are glad to plow at the lower farm.

Clara Robinson, who has been quite ill in the hospital, is getting along nicely.

Clarence Lewis is getting to be a good checker player. He is very hard to beat.

Malvina Moxley is working in the sewing room and is learning to sew very rapidly.

Julia Hoyt is now working in the hospital kitchen; she does her work very neatly.

We are all glad to see Patsy Loftus able to walk on his leg and attend school again.

Fred Lewis is now promoted from the ranks of B company to lieutenant of company C.

George Goss, who has been working in the engineering department, is now working on the farm.

We are all glad to see Lena Ashue return to school after spending her vacation with her parents at home.

The dressmakers will give their party tonight and hope that it will be enjoyed by the ones who are invited.

Barney Vincent has entered the engineering department with the intention of becoming a good engineer.

Viola Ferris is improving rapidly in her music lessons and the girls enjoy hearing her play on the piano.

For the past week the weather has been very cold; on the third day of February we had some snow.

Millie Friedlander is Miss Troutman's floor girl now and Millie says that she likes to work for Miss Troutman.

We are glad to see Lena Ashue back to Chemawa again after vacation. She brought her two brothers with her.

Mr. Hulden accidentally cut his finger Saturday on the saw in the carpenter shop while ripping a piece of board.

Ellen Tohet and Julia Hoyt are working in the hospital this month. All hope to see them become good cooks.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. are arranging to have an outing along in April sometime, as they had last year.

We are all glad to see Lena Ashue back to the sewing room again, for she is one of Miss Brown's best sewers.

Robert Cameron is doing very well with his E-flat clarinet. Robert was a little out of practice at first, but he is improving very rapidly.
