

LOCALS

Miss Irene Campbell was coach and chaperon for the basketball girls who went to Monmouth and who had the pleasure of defeating that excellent team by the score of 13 to 11.

The snow set us all a little wild.

Robins and bluebirds are telling us that there will be no more cold weather.

Sara McCush wrote the account of the eighth grade party in last week's Chemawa AMERICAN.

Mr. Westley returned to his work last Saturday after a month's vacation.

William Blodgett arrived here Tuesday morning for a visit and all his friends were glad to see him. He is employed in a tailor shop at Tacoma, Wash.

Miss Stillwell, who has been at her home in Salem, is again acting as a stenographer in the office.

A. S. Hulden, who has been employed at Chemawa for something more than a year, left Wednesday for Ft. Shaw, Montana, where he will see how he likes the position of carpenter, and also other conditions. Many friends at Chemawa hope for his success.

Athletics

The Chemawa Y. M. C. A. first basketball team will play the U. of O. next Saturday in our gymnasium.

Last Saturday night Chemawa's Y. M. C. A. Junior basketball team defeated the Salem Y. M. C. A. Juniors by a score of 25 to 8.

Russel Whitebear was beaten in a two-hundred yard foot race last Saturday afternoon by William Watkins.

The boys of the Junior Y. M. C. A. are wishing for a big game with the Tailors' basketball team.

We are the Juniors, don't you see?

Those who are wise will let us be.

We are the Juniors, don't you see?

Rah! Rah! Zip Boom! Rah! Rah! Zee! Zee!

The game of basketball played Saturday evening was enjoyed by all who were present.

The junior basketball team defeated the Salem juniors last Saturday evening by a score of 25 to 8.

We are all anxious to see the all-stars of Chemawa play basket-ball with the Y. M. C. A. team.

Left-Over Items

We all enjoyed the lecture last Monday night.

Mrs. Olney is here visiting her daughter, Ellen.

Mike Oleson says he likes to work down at the lower farm.

It snowed on Mr. Teabo's birthday but the basket-ball boys made it warm for him.

Tom Cox is working as sweeper at the Small Boys' Home and he does his work neatly.

Alice McPherson is working in the dining hall and does her work very neatly.

Alex Cajete would like to have a piano accompanist so that he can play some clarinet solos.

The girls are enjoying reading their library books after school and work which keeps them busy.

The eighth grade pupils were sorry that Minnie Howard could not attend their party. She had a sore throat but is all right now.