

Left-Over Items

The farm boys are very busy plowing at the lower farm.

We are glad to have new pupils in our school room.

The third grade pupils are glad to have a new teacher.

Eddie Mann has a new wagon. I had a ride on it.—P. L.

John Darnell says that his work is very good at the office.

Alice McPherson is very glad that her father is coming this winter.

We thank Mrs. Mann for making the pennant for the eighth grade.

Nellie Boswell is now working in the dining hall and likes it very much.

Annie Evans is learning the German language. We all wish her success.

Peter John has been helping the farmers plow down at the lower farm.

Abraham McCoy and Fred Dowd are here visiting their friends this week.

Neva Souvigner is now working in the dining hall and her work is neatly done.

Grace Beaver is very proud of her corner shelf which Ed Curl made for her.

Ellen Olney's mother is here. She came from North Yakima, Wash., to see her.

Beattie Lahr says she wants to be a good dress-maker before she goes back to her home.

The Third Grade all like their new teacher. She is very good to the girls and boys.

We are having beautiful weather this month. It seems more like May than February.

Joe Whalawitsa was promoted Tuesday afternoon from Second Grade to Third Grade.

Harry Busby says he likes to work on the garden detail.

Henry Flemming is the best sweeper in the Small Boys' building.

I hope all of the boys and girls in the third grade like their new teacher.

Thomas Mullings is working in the carpenter shop. He says he likes his work very well.

Little Louise Blodgett says she likes this school because she can play with lots of little girls like herself.

I am glad that I came in this grade and I want to go to other grades, and am going to try my best.

Joe Whalawitsa came into the third grade this morning. We are glad to have a new boy in our grade.

McBride Hall has been honored by a visit from Baby Farrow who created quite a sensation among the girls.

Ella Flemming has been working for Mrs. Chalcraft for the past week and she is very much pleased with her work.

The dairy boys are through laying sidewalk in front of the dairy house. They were working at the task for a week.

The sweepers will be glad if they change the work detail next Monday for most of them have been working there a good while.

We are all glad that Joe Wiggins is taking care of the school chickens and we hope that he will become a good poultryman.

The riddles that Lela Wilson gave in the Estelle Reel Society were very good, and we would like to hear some more just like them.