

Left-Over Items

Eddie Mann is taking lessons on cornet.

Eva Simmons is getting to be a fine sewer.

Lena Ashue is working in the sewing room.

Ellen Ferris is working in the laundry at present.

Fred Wright is a good worker on the dairy detail.

Miss Royer is my teacher; she is a good teacher.

Eddie Curl is getting to be a pretty good checker player.

Ellen Ferris can play some very nice pieces on the piano.

Neva Souvigner takes interest in her work in the laundry.

Matilda John is doing some very neat sewing for Lizzie Frazier.

Bessie Meannus moved over to McBride Hall last Saturday.

Clarence Cooper has a magic lantern and Forrest thinks lot of it.

The engineers are glad to see Walter McGibbons in the shop again.

Mrs. Cox gave a very good lecture to the dining hall girls on Monday.

Lillian Stensgar is now taking lessons on the guitar and is learning fast.

Henry Darnell says he likes Mr. Turney as instructor in the printing office.

The dress makers are going to make the girls every-day dresses next week.

Alice Sam is now working in the sewing room. She says she likes to work there.

The girls that are taking nurse training have commenced to make their uniforms.

Laura Wilson is taking much interest in her cooking lessons given by Mrs. Teabo.

John Taylor is working in the engineer department. He is a good worker.

Mr. Barrett, who was here for a visit, left for Minnesota to visit his daughters, Grace and Nellie.

Gabriel Peters says that he is going to work in the blacksmith shop some time this week.

Addie Cameron had her first lesson on the violin Monday evening and we all wish her success.

The harnessmakers have organized a basketball team and were practicing Monday evening.

Firman Wilson and Willie Service are working for Mr. Larsen. Firman says he likes his work.

Christine Lane is an honest girl and every one likes her. She is the head of the mandolin club.

Nellie Boswell and Lillie Burns are now working in the laundry and Mrs. Woods is very proud of them.

Mary Campbell and Mary Boles are working in the dining hall and they like to work there very much.

We are all sorry to hear that Nellie Boswell has left the Saturday detail and is working on the Friday detail.

Myrtle Berner says she wants to be a good nurse, so that when any of her friends get sick she can help them.

As Tuesday, February 11, was John Swartz's birthday, the family had a dinner at six o'clock, at which everybody enjoyed themselves. Among other presents he received a good spanking from his little brother, Durigh, which he said nearly broke his back.