

PUPILS' ITEMS

The third grade is having long division. Alex Lee is working in the carpenter shop.

Jimmie Evans is now working in the printing office.

Mr. Cooper likes to use words that make us think.

Ernest David is getting along nicely in his studies.

Albert Griffen is doing fine work in the new hospital.

Mrs. Mann makes the most beautiful pennants we ever saw.

Richard Busby has some high stilts. He let me walk on them.

The McBride Hall girls had a fine drill this morning before their breakfast.

Louis Sanderson says he is going to be a dairyman. We all hope he will.

The third grade has Miss Royer busy putting number-work on the board.

Harry Joe is now working in the tailor shop. He does his work neatly.

One of the furnaces in the power house has been fixed up for burning wood.

David Rabbie is getting to be a good sweeper and he likes his work very well.

Ethel Wilson is working in the sewing room and she is a fine little worker.

Ambrose Whitefoot is learning the trade of tailoring and is doing nicely.

When William Watkins gets out of school every afternoon at four o'clock he goes right down to the blacksmith shop to teach the boys who came into the shop lately. William is learning fast and likes to teach others what he knows.

Alice McPherson says that she is going to study hard and get up in the fourth grade.

Willie Service is working in Mr. Larsen's office. He says he likes his work very well.

I like the Chemawa School pretty well, because I like to learn something that is good.

Nellie Boswell is now working in the laundry and Mrs. Woods is very proud of her.

Maud Lowry and Christina Lane played some nice music on the guitar and mandolin Saturday afternoon.

The nurse girls take turns working in the wards, dispensary and kitchen. They work two weeks in each place.

Nettie Carrasco is working in the dining hall, and she says that she likes to fill the syrup pitchers and wash them out.

The girls basketball team was again victorious. They defeated the Silverton team at Silverton on Saturday evening by the score of 24 to 8.

Left-Over Items

Barney Vincent is now the coal passer for Fred Lewis. Fred says that Barney is the best fellow that he ever had hauling coal for him. He is always on time.

In Idaho they have eleven inches of snow. They expect to have a good crop this year. The cattle and other stock are in good shape and we are very glad to hear of it.

The Harnessmakers are getting up a basketball team and they are going to have a game with the Tailors some time next week. The Harnessmakers are expecting to have a good team.