

PUPIES' ITEMS

Jennie Luke says she likes to work on the floor.

I wish the engineers would give us an oyster supper.

John Service is getting to be a good runner on stilts.

The ventilators are finished in the new gymnasium.

We are all glad that Mrs. Brewer's family came back.

Tom Cox is a good sweeper at the small boys' home.

If you want to hear some good singing, go to Carl Cook.

Millie Friedlander is improving very much in her studies.

We are all glad that Jerry Reese can come to school again.

We have three new pupils in the third grade in the afternoon.

The third grade is improving very much in their spelling.

We are all glad to have a little new boy in the third grade.

Frank Dan is working at the wood shed and he likes his work.

Henry John is one of the best sweepers in the little boys building.

We pupils in the third grade are interested in our number work.

The girls in the small girls sewing room are doing good work this week.

Robert Service is working on the sweepers' detail for Mrs. Doherty.

Willie Peone is now working in the laundry. He says he likes his work.

Lillian Stensgar is doing very nicely in the sewing room.

Miss Steponeck is very nice to the girls who work down at the laundry.

Lizzie Gibeau works down at the laundry and does her work very nicely.

Charles Dick says he likes to walk on stilts, and also likes to run on stilts.

Anthony Morell is now working on the garden. He says he likes it very well.

Harriet Diok is still working in the sewing room and she says she likes her work.

Martha Miller says that she knows how to make the dishes shine in the dining hall.

Douglas Luke is working as a sweeper at the little boys' building. He says he likes his work.

Ruth Liphart says that she is going to try and make the fourth grade by the end of the year.

The sewing room girls in Miss Skip-ton's room made one hundred towels in two hours last Tuesday.

Eugene Anderson, one of the great firemen on the afternoon shift, says he is right there like a duck turning on steam in McBride Hall.

Harvey Ashue likes to work in the carpenter shop, and I like to work in the tailor shop, and Elmer Ashue likes to work in the blacksmith shop.

I have been in St. Ignatius mission for seven years and during those seven years I went as high as the third grade. And after being at Chemawa for one week I have learned more than I did in one year at the mission school.