

Athletics

John McCush is getting to be quite a basketball player.

The boys are training for the relay race on the second of May.

The girls' first basketball team will play with the OAC girls Saturday, February 22, in our gymnasium.

Chemawa first Y. M. C. A. basketball team was defeated by O.A.C. last Saturday night at Chemawa by a score of 30 to 13.

Merl Poland, who accompanied the basketball team to Silverton, was highly complimented by the Silverton people on his fairness as referee.

Last Saturday there was a game of basketball between Chemawa and Silverton, and Chemawa won the game. Sunday the Chemawa team came home.

The Mt. Angel College basketball team defeated the Chemawa second team in a game of basketball at Mt. Angel Saturday afternoon by a score of 22 to 20.

Tuesday evening there was a game of basketball between Chemawa's Rough Riders and Juniors. A good, well contested game was witnessed, but victory crowned the Juniors. The score was 18 to 12.

The tailors will be ready to play a game of basketball with the blacksmiths on the twenty-fifth of this month.

William Watkins is training hard for the big tryout in Portland in May and says he is going to make good.

The first team of basketball girls played Silverton last Saturday evening and defeated them. The score being 8 to 24. The girls enjoyed the trip very much.

The line-up of the girls basketball team is as follows: Norah Mann, center; Tillie Souvigner, left forward; Katie Henry, right forward, Hattie Mann, left guard; Violet Edwards, right guard; Mary Pablo, right forward, sub; Helen Harnden, left guard, sub.

ACADEMIC

Who will win the next debate?

Galucia Nelson is studying hard so as to make the sixth grade.

Addie Cameron is doing fine in the sixth grade. We all hope she will continue with her good work.

The eighth grade started in practical measurements Tuesday. Mrs. Campbell said the boys would get along all right, but the girls would get gray over the questions. As yet nothing serious has happened.

INDIANS BUY CHURCH BELL

To purchase a bell for the church mission at the Umatilla reservation is the purpose of the visit to Portland of three fullblooded Indians who arrived at the Imperial hotel last night. This is perhaps the first Indian delegation of its kind to come to Portland on a similar mission. The committee is composed of Rev. E. J. Conners, Philip Jones and Albert Minthorn, all of whom are from the Tutuilla Indian church of the Umatilla reservation. Funds have been raised by the Indian church and the committee came here to select the bell personally in order that it may be satisfactory.—Portland Journal.