

PUPILS' ITEMS

Hazel Butler is one of the faithful floor girls.

William Major is now up and is practicing on his violin.

We are all glad that James Benjamin is back in school again.

Joe Moss is now working on the garden detail and likes his work.

The McBride Hall girls have been divided into three companies.

Mary Gibeau made a pretty white apron for one of her friends,

These days, which are like spring days, are very much enjoyed by us.

We all enjoyed the social Friday evening, as we had a fine time.

Tillie Souvigner is now sergeant of the third company in McBride Hall.

Katie Henry is taking lessons on the banjo and she is learning very fast.

All the boys in the sixth grade study their lessons and behave themselves.

Miss Royer is a very nice teacher for the third grade. She keeps them busy.

Louise Moss is now one of Mrs. Thiesz's floor girls and likes her work very much.

Joseph Souvigner, from Washington, is here visiting his brother and sisters.

Ellen Ferris is working in the sewing room and takes pride in everything she does.

Mr. Blodgett with his boys were out fixing the lawns in front of the new hospital.

Mrs. and Miss Woods took five girls out walking Sunday, and we enjoyed our walk.

Mr. Fickle gave the sixth grade a very interesting talk about his school days.

Some of us were in darkness on Monday night as the electric lights were being fixed.

Mary LaRose is working in the sewing room. Mary says she likes Chema-wa very much.

The boys went out Monday morning and got different kinds of shrubs to plant on the grounds.

McBride Hall was left without lights Monday night on account of the boys fixing the wires.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith took some girls out for a long walk Sunday, and we all enjoyed ourselves.

Maggie Wynaco is now working in the sewing room. Maggie is going to learn to be a dressmaker.

Thomas McCully is studying hard for the coming debate between the Non-pareils and the Excelsiors.

Martha LeClaire played a number of beautiful pieces on the violin for the girls on Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Picard and Edward are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Farrow. They are from Adams, Ore.

The blacksmith boys said if they win this game from the tailor boys Mr Mann would give them a party.

Eddie Mann is getting along fine in his arithmetic, and his reading, too. He says he means to make the fourth grade.

On the 24th of February our teacher took us out of school and took us into the woods where we dug out wild plants. That surprised me, as I never saw that in Montana this time of the year. I was glad to go out and dig the plants, as I had never seen such plants in Montana.