第1、時間後し、たけた所用して、四日子・

8

Monday, there was no school for the forenoon pupils. The girls went back to their quarters while the boys went out in the woods to dig up wild ferns, Oregon grape and different shrubs to be planted here on the school's birthday.

The old iron pipes laying around are being put to good use by Supt. Chalcraft. They are made into fences and put along the sidewalks at different places to help keep the pupils from tramping on the lawns.

The boys who went to Dallas last Saturday to play basketball report having had a very nice time.

Mr. Teabo, who lost two horses two weeks ago, has recovered his property. They were caught at Mollalla, about forty-five miles northeast of here.

The blacksmiths are helping the engineers stretch large wires from the power house to the hospital and McBride Hall

Silas Moon, an ex-pupil of this school, was here Sunday. He left for Tacoma, where he works in the car shops, Sunday evening.

James Evans is now apprenticed in the printing office.

We had singing services in the chapel last Monday evening.

Mr. Bowen and his boys are leveling the grounds by the new hospital.

The morning school boys devoted their time to digging various plants to be planted by the new hospital last Monday.

Mr. Mann and his force of boys are very busy fixing the electric wires connecting all buildings. Frank Booth, who was working at the Salem Iron Works, is with us again for his vacation.

The building, formerly known as the Large Boys' Home, is now called "Brewer Hall."

The Nesikas had their party last Friday evening.

The girls' first and second basketball teams played a game last Saturday evening.

Frank Sorrel, a boy from Montana, is now working in the kitchen.

The attendance of the Bible Study class last Sunday was 75.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith took quite number of girls out for a walk last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Irene Campbell took some of the pupils into the woods to get ferns, shrubs, etc, They had a fine time.

Adella Payne is making a very nice bead necklace for herself.

We are all glad to see James Benjamin back in school again after being out on account of his eyes.

Mrs. Bewley's brother came from Dallas, Fuesday morning, and he stoped off to visit his sister. She was glad to see him.

Maggie Jerry has completed a very pretty bead chain for one of her friends. Miss Steponeck, the new laundress, is very nice to the girls.

The band boys had a fine practice Monday evening

John Brown is getting to be an expert basketball player. He has been practicing ever since he came.

The student body practiced some songs Monday evening for the 28th anniversary of our school.