While the school was at mass Tuesday morning the large dormitory at the Catholic Mission school on Cour de Alene reservation, Idaho, was entirely destroyed, with its contents, by fire. The loss is placed at $35,000.

Dina McLane continues to advance in her training as hospital cook, judging from the dainty Park House rolls she has recently sent as a sample to Superintendent Hall.—Sherman Bulletin.

Mr. MacArthur in speaking of matters in his department says: "Our new dairy barn is only two-thirds full of cows, but those now occupying the comfortable quarters are producing some milk. For the month of January they made an average of eighty gallons a day, besides several calves being vealed and the amount of milk consumed by them not recorded."—Indian Leader.

A. A. Breuninger thinks it would be a fine thing to have a reunion of all the old band-boys at Haskell at Commencement time next year. It would be delightful, but why not wait one more year and celebrate our twenty-fifth anniversary with a general reunion of as many old pupils as can come?—Indian Leader.

The oldest Indian reservation is at White Earth, Minn., which was in charge of Bishop Whipple for many years. It contains 1,200 Ojibways.—Indian Leader.

Father O'Brien addressed the student body and faculty on Sunday upon the subject of "Obedience and good Example." Seldom have our pupils exhibited more interest and given better attention. Father has the faculty of getting at the root of things and always impresses his audience strongly. Such talks are good for the Sherman students.—Sherman Bulletin.

The Phoenix editor says there was a great deal of ingenuity displayed in Phoenix on Saturday night in fitting keys into rusty locks of saloon doors which had never been closed before. Sunday closing of saloons in Phoenix is welcomed at last.—Native American.

The composition on the "Home of Lincoln," in another column, was written by a little Navajo girl eleven years of age, who came here when seven years old with no knowledge whatever of English. The penmanship is also excellent.—Native American.

In an editorial of the last number we advised you to adjust your football suit, to get in line, tackle low, and to use the 3, 16, 18 play for the goal. On that team you must play either center, tackle, or guard. You cannot be a quarterback in mathematics, halfback in Science, fullback in Latin, and end in English to score your credits.—The Columbiad.

An advertisement is running for constructing a hospital and making additions to other buildings at Leupp school, Joseph E. Maxwell in charge, Leupp, Arizona. Bids are to be opened in Washington, March 17.—Native America.

Our girls receive a good many advantages at Sherman, but none of which seems so important as cooking and serving a well-prepared meal. Not only do they secure such training in the domestic science department, but at the hospital, the ranch, the teachers' club, and in the homes of twelve families who have cottages on the grounds.—Sherman Bulletin.
