IN LIGHTER VEIN.

A motorist, who was touring in Ireland, one day met a native on the road who was driving a donkey and cart. Thinking to have a little fun at his expense, he began:

"What is the difference, Pat between your turnout and mine?"

The native looked at the questioner a minute or so, and then replied:

"Faith an' its not a great deal. The donkey's in the shift in one and on the
