

LOCALS

Lent began this week.

Mrs. Cox was in Salem last Monday. Alice Chalcraft is taking lessons on the violin.

Miss Troutman went to Salem, Tuesday, on business.

Miss Brown and Miss Royer went to Portland last Sunday.

Mrs. Garrett, from Eureka, Cal., is visiting her son at this school.

Miss Brown went to Portland, Sunday, and reports having a very nice time.

During the absence of Miss Brown Margaret Lowry taught in her place.

Frank Korn, an ex-pupil of Chemawa, is now attending the Puyallup school.

Mr. Campbell in southern Oregon going over some very bad mountain roads in stage and on horseback.

We will not hear so much about basketball hereafter as the baseball microbe has attacked us again.

Philip Moss, one of our new students, is doing excellent work in the seventh grade. He is very anxious to excell.

The school was very quiet on Monday night in chapel and we heard the little chick "peep" when Mr. Swartz held it up.

A number of our employes attended the Salem theater on Wednesday evening. "The Virginian" was the attraction.

Tommy Case brought a very pretty fern into the seventh grade, which he cares for and which is growing rapidly.

Mr. Larsen gave a cornet solo to the C. company on the third floor in Brewer Hall last Sunday morning. All the boys enjoyed it.

The girls who attended the concert given by the "Booster Club" of Salem enjoyed it, and were especially pleased with the violinist, LeRoy Gessner.

Mr. Swartz gave a very interesting lecture last Monday. He especially interested the girls in showing them how to test eggs to see whether they are fresh or not.

Do any of our readers know what "fastnachts" are? Miss Noble made some on Tuesday because it was shrove Tuesday. Maybe some Pennsylvania people will know they are a very good fried cake.

We are right in the midst of civilization at Chemawa—eight trains daily to and from Portland on the electric road, and the Southern Pacific on the other side with its many trains going to Portland and way down to Southern California.

Miss Irene Campbell entertained the Silverton basketball team at her home on Saturday eve. The young ladies of the Silverton team, their coach, their referee and chaperon; the girls of our team, Merl Poland, (our referee) and Mr. and Mrs. Chalcraft were the guests.

Miss Bowman, for many years an efficient teacher in our school, was married in Seattle, Wash., Saturday afternoon to Mr. James McPherson of Alaska. Mrs. McPherson will be greatly missed by the employes and pupils of Chemawa, who all wish her long life and happiness.

Good reports have reached us of Frank Rosenberg, Willie Carrasco, Thos. Mullings and Aurelius Talbot, who work in the engineering department from 6:30 p. m. to 12 m. It is said that they keep everything neat and clean in the department during their shift, and pay strict attention to duty. We are pleased to hear such reports.
