

Athletics

The Tigers defeated the juniors Saturday night.

Fred Blodgett did some fine playing last Tuesday evening.

The boys are going to organize first and second baseball teams.

The tailors' basketball team will play the Y. M. C. A. Juniors again.

Albert Garry is up every morning at five o'clock and runs his five miles.

Edward Ainsworth is out every day training for the fifty-mile relay race.

The OAC girls from Corvallis are coming to play basketball Saturday eve.

Lewis Sanderson and Wallace Burroughs are getting to be good basketball players.

Sam John says he will come back to school. He is one of the five mile runners that won last spring.

The boys had a meeting a few evenings ago in order to organize first and second baseball teams for this year.

Peter Casey was elected captain of the first team of baseball. We all hope he will put out a good team this year.

The blacksmiths and engineers will play a game of basketball the 11th. I think everybody will enjoy the game.

The Chemawa girls first basketball team defeated the Silverton team last Saturday evening by the score of 22 to 6.

Eugene Williams has been practicing basketball lately. He says he must show up in a game before the season is over.

William Watkins and Martin Sampson ran a race from goal to goal, Watkins giving Sampson ten yards start and beating him in.

One of the boys received a letter from Sam John and Walter Haight. They said they will be at Chemawa in a short time to train for the relay race.

Wm. Watkins is now getting himself in trim for the coming season. One can see him out in his running suit every evening running the high hurdles. In this event he says he will be one of the defenders of the dear old "Red and White."

Brevities

Susie Moody is a good dress maker.

Willie Foster is now working on the garden detail.

Thomas Mulling is now working in the power house.

Dollie Case is promoted from the seventh to the eighth grade.

Little Louise Blodgett is a frequent visitor in the sewing room.

Ruth Brewer is in the fourth grade and is getting along nicely.

Chas. Walton, one of the night shift firemen, is now working in the day time.

Vernie Cliff returned to resume her studies after four years absence and we are all glad to welcome her back.

The seniors and juniors are taking turns in cooking for the visiting basketball teams and they take delight in so doing.

A letter was handed to me last week from some of my friends in Montana. They said that they wished that they could have come over with us; that it was cold and snowing when they wrote to me. When I wrote to them I told them that the frogs were croaking and the summer birds are singing here at Chemawa.