

PUPILS' ITEMS

The gardeners are busy sorting potatoes.

Harry Busby makes a good captain of company "D".

Violet Berner is making a pretty blue silk waist for herself.

Lillie Burns is hemstitching a very pretty stand cover for herself.

Eleven girls went to Salem Monday night to a musical intertainment.

Dollie Case made 96 percent in her monthly grade in the seventh grade.

Miss Royer and some of her boys planted some beautiful ferns in our room.

Lillie Patton is working in the laundry and says she likes Miss Steponeck.

Harry Sexton, an ex-Chemawa student writes that he is having a fine time in Australia.

The third grade boys and girls are studying very hard to get in a higher grade.

Laura Wilson has a banjo and she takes great pains trying to learn to play it.

The Sunbeams met last Wednesday evening and they had a very interesting meeting.

The eighth grade pupils are having practical measurements. They learned how to measure circles.

Ella Flemming is one of the best readers in the fifth grade and her teacher is very proud of her.

Miss Royer read to the third grade a piece out of the newspaper about the United States battleship.

Allah Madison does very good bead work. She is going to make Mrs. Cooper a very pretty bead chain.

We are learning all kinds of trades at Chemawa, by which we can make a living when we leave here.

A letter received from Effie Olafson states that she is married and her name is now Mrs. R. O. Kenyon.

Roy Frazier and Johnnie Darnell are now working at the office. They say its a good place to work.

Mike Telkia is getting to be a good hand drawer. He says he is going try and send some of his pictures to the East.

Mr. Swartz gave interesting lecture Monday evening on farming and raising chickens which interested the girls as well as the boys.

They must be learning how to march in the third grade judging from the steady tramp heard in that room every morning and afternoon.

We Cour de Alenes are expecting Mr. C. O. Worley, the Superintendent, to be here by next week and hope he will bring some of our boy and girl friends with him.

Miss Troutman says that she is very glad to have Millie Freeland on her detail, because she darns more stockings than any other girl. She darned twenty-one the other day and was proud of it.

When I left Montana about a month ago can you guess what my occupation was? Well, I was a lumber jack alright, paddling in the snow to unbury the saw-logs to skid next spring for the sawmills in that country. Then along came Mr. Campbell and I came to Chemawa with him.