

PUPILS' ITEMS

We all hope to see the Che-In-Tra, Club appear again.

Addie Cameron and Christina Lane are excellent dressmakers.

Louise Thornton is getting to be quite a nurse since she is at the new hospital.

We were very much pleased with the entertainment given Monday evening.

Martin Cooper is back in the harness-shop after a short illness in the hospital.

The girls and boys in the third grade had a nice lesson about General Putnam.

Julia Hoyt says she likes to work in the new hospital because it is fresh and clean.

Mrs. Bewley was absent one day last week. Ida Johnson took her place at the mess.

Mattie Zimmerman received a very nice book from one of her friends for a birthday present.

Last Sunday evening there were forty-three boys and forty-eight girls present at the Bible Class.

Bessie Clark is working in the sewing room and she is trying very hard to become a dressmaker.

Mattie Zimmerman is now working in the sewing room and she is getting to be an excellent dressmaker.

We are all looking forward to the entertainment to be given by The Reliance Literary Society.

We have now a new baker. His name is Peter LaMoose. We expect that he will make a good baker.

All the nurses say they are glad they have moved to the new hospital because the work will be much easier.

The weather is changeable, so be careful boys and girls and wrap up for this weather is liable to make one sick.

The sewing room girls are all anxious to get through with the work dresses, so they can begin on the summer uniforms.

Wm. Watkins is now practicing how to write in a business form. He says that he will be a good penman before the year is over.

Mrs. Campbell told the seventh grade some of her experiences in the Wind-River mountains in Wyoming. She often tells interesting things.

Mrs Mayfield, who was visiting her sister, Mrs Chalcraft, here last week, said that she doesn't think there is another school as pretty as Chemawa.

The McBride Hall girls have organized a new club and they expect to give an entertainment in a short time, which will be the best ever given at Chemawa we hope.

Academic

We are glad to see Joaquin Meadows and Antoine Francis back in school again.

The fourth grade had a very interesting lesson on birds one afternoon this week.

We are studying hard for our final examinations, at which we all hope to make good.

We were glad to see George Wilson and Benny Wilcox promoted to the fourth grade.

Mike Telkia has drawn some beautiful pictures and sent some of them to his friends in the east.
