

PUPILS' ITEMS

We are now having fine weather.—E. M.

Martha Miller is practicing on the violin.—C. R.

Willie Service likes to work for Mr. Larsen.—M. C.

Miss Steponeck took some girls out for a walk last Sunday.

Tom Fleury is getting to be a good violin player.—J. F.

Alden Clark is now second lieutenant in Company C.—E. W.

Esther Napoleon is spending all of her spare time practicing on the violin.—L. W.

Agnes Shepard is working in the dining hall and does her work very well.—P. L. F.

We are all anxiously looking forward to a recital by the stringed instrument club.—M. L.

Monday evening the Band boys had a good long practice out in the band stand.—J. S.

Laura Cochran is now working in the sewing room and she does her work nicely.—R. L.

Our leading member of the Progressive arrived on the morning train. We hope our members will get in and root.—E. C.

If we take advantage of all the benefits that this school has to offer we will be able to do well for ourselves after we leave here.—T. S.

Willie Foster is getting to be a good gardener. He is one of Mr. Westley's best workers and he says he likes the work very well.—A. S.

Fred Blodgett is now working in the plumber shop.—H. J.

Wm. Corrasco is practicing on the slide trombone.—T. M.

Ambrose Whitefoot likes to work in the tailor shop.—H. A.

Jim Finley is going to run in the five-mile run this year.—F. S.

Clara Reid is practicing on the piano and is doing well.—M. M.

I wish the Ramona Society would soon have their party.—J. W.

The members of the Y.M.C.A. elected new officers last meeting.—C. S.

Mary Gibeau is taking guitar lessons and is improving very fast.—C. L.

Philip Moss played his first game of basketball last Saturday night.—H. D.

Mrs. Theisz and the floor girls have been busy transplanting flowers.—M. J.

Harriet Dick is getting to be a neat sewer in the large sewing room.—E. L.

Alvin Smith is now working on the garden detail and he says he likes his trade.—W. J.

Stanley Pedro has received a very nice Indian basket from one of his friends.—S. A.

Some of the McBride Hall girls have organized a club, and expect to give an entertainment soon.—B. L.

Junior Y.M.C.A. defeated the engineer's second team by the score of 37 to 1 in a game of basketball.—C. C.

We are having a good time here in the Chemawa school. We play marbles and ball and other games.—W. J.

The Y. W. C. A. State Convention will be held in Eugene, Oregon, this year. We hope Chemawa will send a large number of delegates to represent their Association.—B. C.