

Academic

Arthur Steele is getting along nicely in the second grade.—E. D.

We are all glad to see Philip Rees back in school again.—W. M.

Cora Swanson has been promoted to the third grade this week.—B. M.

John Mason drew a pretty flag on the blackboard of the second grade.—H. W.

The pupils in the second grade are drawing some pictures to put in their school room.—B. B.

We are all glad to see Jesse Wilson back to school, after an absence of several days.—L. M.

We are having quarterly examination in Mrs. Campbell's school room and the pupils are busy.—F. T.

Miss Frances Tucker started school here Friday. She goes in the 8th grade and the junior class.—F. S.

We are all glad to see Millie Friedlander back in school again, after she has been in the hospital.—B. M.

The boys of the senior class all appreciated Louise Murray's treat last Monday evening. Come again Louise.

The pupils of the sixth grade were glad to see Matilda Lewis in school again after a short absence in the hospital.—W. F.

The senior class girls invited Mrs. Theisz, Mrs. Cloutier and Mrs. Williams to dinner at the domestic science department Tuesday.—S. B.

The fifth grade pupils are all glad to see William Major back to school again. He has been in the hospital.—C. M.

The senior class have finished the 180 review problems in the back of their arithmetic and are now taking Average Payments.—K. B.

We are all glad to have a new pupil in the third grade.—C. D.

Miss Royer is reading an interesting story to her third grade. It is very funny and they are enjoying it.—L. M.

Sixth grade pupils are always ready for examination. Mr. Fickle says examination will come before long.—J. P.

Both Seniors and Juniors, I am sure, are very sorry that we are going to lose Mrs. Cloutier and we hope she will not forget us altogether.—V. C.

Quarterly examination this week! How it stared us in the face when we came to school Monday morning. But this is no bugbear to us, for we have mastered many examinations like this before.—F. S.

The cake which was offered by Mrs. Cloutier to her pupils as a prize for finishing the 180 review problems, was won by the girls. It was a delicious fruit-cake. But the girls being generous gave the boys a share of their prize.—T. S.

Ernest Brewer left for Tacoma, Wash., Tuesday morning.—R. B.

On Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and Miss Irene took a trolley ride to Wilsonville.

What makes me think of home while I can stay here at Chemawa and learn how to read and write and spend a pleasant time while I am here.—E. D.

Walter Haight and Samuel John arrived Monday morning on the overland train from California. Walter brought his little sister to attend school.—J. D.

The Nonpareil society expects to give an entertainment in the near future. Bessie Boles is busy giving the girls some pieces and solos. Bessie is always full of the right spirit to help any one.—A. B.