

Academic

Sarah Matthews was promoted to the fourth grade.—M. F.

The fifth grade have completed their examination.—A. B.

There are some pretty pictures in the second grade.—M. C.

We are all glad that examination is over in the sixth grade.

Sarah Matthews was promoted from third A to fourth A.—L. P.

Christina Dick is getting along fine in the second grade.—E. K.

The sixth grade pupils are through with their examination.—F. C.

We third grade pupils seem to take interest in our studies.—W. P.

Alex Moran is studying hard to be promoted to the third grade.—J. J.

We are all glad to welcome Paschal George back to school again.—V. G.

The Junior class is starting on Ratio this week and are getting along very well.—C. D.

The seventh grade pupils are going to begin denominate numbers the first of April.—C. R.

Firman Wilson is the smallest boy in the third grade, yet, he always gets his lessons well.—J. R.

Miss Royer has been reading to us a nice story since she has been teacher in the third grade.—B. M.

The literary societies are preparing to give an entertainment before disbanding for the summer.—M. L.

The seventh grade boys and girls are sorry to see Mrs. Campbell leave them. But we are glad she will be our teacher again when we get to be Juniors and Seniors.—A. B.

Mrs. Campbell gave the 7th grade a very practical talk. And we appreciate it, and thank her for her consideration.—M. J.

Helen Dillstrom stood the highest, as the result of the examination in the sixth grade. Her average was 95 per cent.—L. S.

The seventh and eighth grade pupils are sorry to see Mrs. Campbell leave their school room but hope to be with her soon as most are studying hard.—R. M.

Last Monday where ever there was a boy or girl from the Junior class you would see them studying spelling for the monthly examination. There were three whose papers were perfect.—L. B.

We have been reading about some great men in our history. Now we come to the most interesting life of Andrew Jackson. Jackson's life is perhaps the most instructive lesson to read.—A. B.

We are all anxious to know when the Excelsior Literary Society is going to give an entertainment, since some whispers have been going around about the other societies giving us an entertainment later on, and when is the Excelsiors going to give one.—E. S.

I, a Montana girl from northern Montana, came to Chemawa about six weeks ago. While I was in Montana, could you guess what my occupation was? Well, I was indeed a rough rider from northern Montana. I knew nothing but ride horses. Now I am in Chemawa. I have the opportunity to learn something more useful in life than riding horses. I am in Miss Royer's class room and I am proud to say that I am learning very fast.