

PUPILS' ITEMS

The band boys are practicing marching.—J. E.

We are all glad to see John Brown in school again.—P. B.

John Mason likes his work in the wagon shop.—W. M.

We are all sorry that Mr. Farrow has gone away.—A. S.

George Carru likes to work orderly at the new hospital.—F.M.

Louise Bakermen is now working in the dining Hall.—M. P.

Last Sunday three more girls joined the Y. W. C. A.—S. B.

Violet Edwards is learning to play on the mandolin.—A. C.

Nettie Carrasco is now working in the Dining Hall.—A. B.

We are all sorry to see Mrs. Cloutier leave Chemawa.—L. W.

We are all glad to see Paschel George back here at Chemawa.—C. V.

Martin Colby received two pretty handkerchiefs from home.—W.S.

Aurthur Steel is now working for Mr. Bowen and likes his work.—P.B.

William Lalashute is very busy working in the garden this week.—M. C.

Nellie Boswell and Alice Bittles are now working in the laundry.—N. C.

Mattie Zimmerman is very proud of her dress Bessie Williams made for her.—C.R.

In the band we have a new trombone player by the name of Chas. Michael.—J. S.

Lizzie Beaver takes great delight in trying to learn how to ride the bicycle.—A. C.

Mrs. Chalcraft gave a reception Monday evening in honor of Mrs Cloutier.—V. E.

John Darnall likes to work at the office.—H. F.

The dairy boys are all glad to have Samuel John back on the dairy detail again.—D. W.

The boys that were at the S. S. convention Sunday report having had a good time.—T. M.

Lena Ashue played some nice pieces on the mandolin last Saturday evening for her friends.—H.B.

Mrs. Cloutier was the sixth grade Sunday school teacher. We are all sorry to see her leave.—M. P.

Harry Busby and James Joe say that they are going to be good gardeners when they get home.—H. J.

Douglas Luke is studying hard in the second grade, he says he will be in the third grade sometime.—H. J.

Dora Aubrey's little sister is attending school here. She came from the Indian school in Tocomo and she likes it here.—R. B.

The farmers and gardeners are all through fixing up the grounds around the new hospital and we are all glad that we are done.—E. S.

Clarinda Blodgett, an ex-pupil of Chemawa is working in a millinery shop at Sacramento, Calif. Her friends at Chemawa wish her success.—G. K.

Walter Miller is now working in the wagon shop. He says before two weeks is out he will be first class wagon maker.—T. H. (Rapid work in the wagon department.—E. D.)