

LOCALS

Miss Koester was in Salem a day this week shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are serving as mess managers this month.

Miss Skipton is in charge of the club kitchen during Mrs. Bewley's absence.

Hulda Stoke's friends were sorry to see her go last Saturday evening on the late train.

Two tents have recently been put up for the open air sanitorium back of the new hospital.

Peter Seltice is cosily located in a tent between Mitchell Hall and the Small Boys' Home.

Mrs. Teabo has several broods of chicks and she is much interested in the new arrivals.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. McPherson got to Alaska safely and we hope to hear from her soon.

Mrs. Bewley, the club cook, was suddenly called home this week on account of the illness of her mother.

A letter has been received from Mrs. S. C. Cloutier from Hepner, Ore., saying that she is well pleased with her new work.

On April 2nd one of our boys received a letter from Manuel Robles, a former Chemawa student, who is now in the Philippines.

Louise Murray, Bessie Chiloquin, Helen Dillstrom and Gertrude Brewer were the delegates from Chemawa who attended the Y. W. C. A. convention at Eugene. Mrs. Chalcraft, Alice Chalcraft, Miss E. Francis and Mrs. Cox also attended.

Mr. Smith and his detail are through wiring the new arc light at the entrance.

Martin Sampson had a wreck on the G. O. P. line Thursday that left him with a lame knee. Presumably got off to push too soon.

Mrs. Teabo and Miss Brewer gave an elaborate supper to the family and immediate friends in honor of Loulin Brewer's 15th birthday.

Mr. Chalcraft, Mr. Smith and the plumber boys have just finished trimming the trees around the office and felling the dead trees.

RELIANCE ENTERTAINMENT

The Reliance Literary Society gave an entertainment Tuesday evening, rendering the following program:

Opening Address.....	Thos. Mullings
Violin Solo.....	Thos. Fleury
Recitation.....	William Lalashute
Recitation.....	Henry Oleson
Recitation.....	Frank Cox
Song—"I like your way".....	Thos. Mullings
Indian Song.....	Joe Whalawitsa and Paschael George
Vocal Solo—"Hello, All right, Good-by".....	Walter McGibbons
Indian Dance.....	Fifteen boys
Song—"Good night".....	Ten boys
Closing Remarks.....	Carl Stone

A few remarks were made by Mrs. Chalcraft before closing the entertainment.

The Indian war dance, which is unheard of in this community, delighted the audience. The young men who participated in this feat exhibited unusual agility in the performance and did full justice to the dance.

The Reliance Society, which now numbers forty eight members, was organized on January 30, 1908, with Mrs. Campbell for critic.