

SOCIETIES

ELITE

The Elite Society met on Thursday evening and had a very good program and debate. There were thirty-five girls present and four absent. Following is the program: Song, Clara Wilson; Song, Jane Baily; Rec., Eleanor Zimmerman; Rec., Ruth Liphart. Debate, Resolved, that it is more pleasant to live in the country than in the city. Aff., Marie Baily and Louise Roberts; Neg., Neta Jones and Christina Boswell. After a lively debate the judges decided in favor of the affirmative.

NONPAREIL

The Nonpareil Literary Society met in their hall last Thursday evening. The house was called to order, and the roll was called. Old and new business was brought before the house and disposed of. There being no other business we proceeded with the following program: How to improve Society work, Levi Sor-tor; Recitation, John McCush; Vocal Solo, Lee Evans; the question for discussion was, "Resolved, That the 19th Century was greater than the 18th". The affirmative was upheld by, Matilda John and Joe Lane, the disputants on the negative were Gordon Hobucket and Frank Booth. While the judges were handing in their decisions Mr. En-right gave us a few words. The judges decided in favor of the negative. We then adjourned.

Y. M. C. A.

The meeting of this association was an informal one. The following impromptu program was rendered:

Song, "Pull for the Shore;" Prayer, Webster Hudson; Roll call; Suggestions, President; addresses by Harry Queachpalma, John McCush and Thomas McCully, subject: "What it means to be a member of the Y. M. C. A." Song, "Only trust Him" and "At the Cross;" Prayer, Albert Garry; then we adjourned.
