

PUPILS' ITEMS

Christine Victor is now working in the sewing room.—M. G.

The flowers are now in full bloom in the green house.—E. D.

Elwood Towner entered the tailor shop Tuesday morning. P. B.

The Chemawa Band was one of the best bands in Salem last Saturday. Hurrah for the Chemawa Band!—D. R.

The members of the mandolin club played some very enjoyable music in the chapel last Tuesday evening. L. H.

Thomas Spedis, after being ill in the hospital recently, has recovered, and is able to continue his studies and shop work. J. S.

A Post Card was received from Miss Frances Howard from Portland, Oregon. We all missed her in Chemawa since she left. A. D.

The Uncle Sams' Literary Society gave an entertainment Friday night which all the boys and girls enjoyed. H. M. B.

We hope to see some pretty flower gardens soon in front of the school building as each grade was given a garden to save during the summer. L. M.

We, dress makers are busy making gingham dresses for the McBride Hall girls, and after we finished them we will make dresses for all the other girls in the school. B. M.

A letter was received from Zephyr Gardepi saying that he is coming down to visit Chemawa next month, and we will all be glad to see Zephyr, as he is one of our ex-pupils. M. J.

The Branch girls received new Bibles last Wednesday evening.—E. Z.

Stella Fiester writes to one of her friends and says that she is going to school in Riverside, Calif.—C. R.

Athletics

Alfred Lane is trying out for the five mile run.—E. E.

The boys will soon have a big tryout for the track team of 1908.—J. W.

Chemawa's first team will play a game of base ball with O. A. C Saturday. T. P.

Since the days are getting pleasant you can see the boys playing ball before and after school.—W. P.

Carl Stone is one of Chemawa's future baseball players. Time will bring out his baseball qualities.—G. N.

John Mason, Ed Evans, Arthur Bell, and Joe Lane are training each evening for the cross-country run.—W. F.

Mr. Chalcraft, Mr. Swartz and a detail of boys are now fixing a 220-yd straight-away track for the use of the short distance sprinters.—D. G.

There was a baseball game played last Saturday afternoon between two pick up teams. Both sides played old league games, the game ending with score of 2 to 1.—W. W.

Walter Haight, the five-mile runner, stated this year that he will lower his last year's record. The other day for the first try out this year over the muddy roads he lowered his record to 28 minutes. Haight is in excellent condition to run this year.—A. B.