

INDUSTRIAL NOTES

Julia Hoyt is now working in the sewing room.—C. W.

Antone Valley is now working in the Baking Department.—M. T.

Lizzie Martin is very busy making new waists for her friends.—A. J.

The industrial boys are keeping the lawns in good shape.—A. B.

Helen Harnden is now waiting on the tables in the mess.—V. J. F.

The blacksmith boys will soon have another wagon ready for the painters to start on.

The boys who were working in the blacksmith shop are now working in the wagon shop.—W. G. F.

The carpenters were working on the stairs to the gallery in the new gymnasium last Wednesday.

The wagonmakers were making a switch on the G. O. & P. line out back of the power house last Wednesday.

The sewing room girls are getting along nicely with the Summer uniforms and will try to finish them soon.—M. H.

The painters have finished painting and wall papering the old cottage of Mr. Farrow, which Mr. Henschel will occupy.—H. O.

Alvina Dale is working at the hospital and she says Mrs. Teabo has helped her a good deal in cooking since she has been there.—M. C.

New note books and tablets, and other writing material have been issued to the new sanitarium for the use of the class of nurse girls for taking notes of the lectures given them in class work.

Athletics

In a game of basketball to decide the championship of the school, the Amateurs proved themselves the better team, through their snappy playing. For the Amateurs, Joe Dillstrom played a fine game; his guarding was excellent. Michel Wilson played a fine game for the Big Z's. It was an excellent game throughout. Score 21-30. Following is the line up:

Amateurs		Big Z's
Smoker	F	Wilson
Goudy	F	Souvier
Upham	C	Darnell
Dillstrom	G	Clark
Haight	G	Williams, Wiggins
Referee, Mr. Teabo; time keeper, E. Williams.—H. J.

Saturday evening we witnessed the last game of basketball for the season between the two school teams.—H. H.

Alfred Lane, the captain of the Amateur baseball team, says that he is going to put out a winning team this year. Alfred is the big catcher for the team and William Watkins is the great fielder. The rest of the players are doing fine work.—A. S.

Earnest David is one of Chemawa's star baseball players who plays third base.—A. T. S.

The blacksmiths were surprised last Tuesday to see Thomas Holden run the low hurdles. He went over them in fine shape.

Willie Carasco is getting to be a very good runner. He says that the five-mile runners will have "to go some" to beat him.—F. S.