

PUPILS' ITEMS

Lizzie Martin is now taking violin lessons.—L. C.

We are having fine weather in Chemawa.—E. T.

The roses that are in bloom near the old hospital look very pretty.—I. J.

The new boys of company A are drilling in the evenings at the gym.—E. C.

Something will be doing by the Progressive Society some of these days—J. P.

Addie Cameron has received a violin from her father and is very proud of it.—A. L.

At the Bible Class last Sunday evening there were 49 boys and 61 girls present.—E. A.

Mr. Cooper says Louis Sanderson is one of the best boys on the dairy detail.—A. M.

The boys of the sixth grade fixed up their flower bed so it is now ready for planting.—F. W.

The Engineers and the Plumbers are due to have an entertainment and party before long.—J. P.

Maggie Wynaco received a trunk from her home, which contained some very nice things.—E. O.

The Progressive Literary Society contemplate giving an entertainment in the near future.—J. J. T.

Christina Lane and Helen Dillstrom are practicing a piano duet, which takes up their spare time.—M. L.

The party given by the members of the Excelsior Society was enjoyed by all who attended it.—L. T.

Mrs. Payne is here visiting her daughter, Adella. She came here Monday. Her home is at Siletz.—J. R.

Dora Aubrey and Violet Edwards have joined the Mandolin Club. Dora plays the guitar and Violet the mandolin.

Misses Royer and Luedke took quite a number of girls out for a long walk Sunday. They all reported having a good time.—P. L.

The girls of the Mandolin Club are progressing rapidly and we hope to hear them play in chapel again in the near future.—D. H.

Hazel Butler can be heard early in the morning practicing on her banjo. Last Sunday she played some very pretty pieces for her friends.—E. S.

The eighth grade girls are glad to have Sarah Brewer work with them in the domestic science department, after having worked with the Juniors for a while.—A. M.

Most of the girls went out walking Sunday and some of them were tired when they got back, as it was so hot. But they all said they enjoyed themselves, and we all hope it will be a good day next Sunday so that we can go out walking again.—H. D.

The Chemawa Indian School is one of the best institutions that has been established for the education and training of young Indian boys and girls. The Government is out a great sum of money and time spent on these Indians and yet there are so good many of them who do not know how to appreciate these things. It is for their own good that they should learn, and every pupil should have a knowledge of these things.—A. M.