

Washington, aged 15, who will run 5 miles to near Oregon City, where the letter will be taken by Peter Casey a half-blood Stickeen, from Alaska, aged 20, who will run 4 9-10 miles to near Oswego, where he will be relieved by Apis Goudy, a full-blood Yakima, from Washington, aged 21, who will run 4 8-10 miles, handing the letter to Amos Smoker, a half-blood Klamath from California, aged 16, who will complete the race after running 3 8-10 miles to the front of the Y. M. C. A. building at the corner of Front and Yamhill St., Portland, Oregon.

Academic

Louise Johnson, who arrived here last Friday morning from her home in Dungeness, Wash., has entered the fourth grade and is getting along nicely in her studies.

Two more new pupils have entered Miss Royer's school room, George and Mable Swain.

Arthur Steele and Elwood Towner were promoted to the third grade on Tuesday.

We are all glad to welcome the two little boys that came from the second grade into the third grade Tuesday afternoon.

In three baked bananas there is as much nourishment as twenty-six pounds of bread.

If the wind is right a fox can scent a man a quarter of a mile. A skunk can do it at two feet.

If you walk through all the rooms of the Spanish royal palace it means a 120 mile trip, and it would take six days unless Weston did it—Ex.

LOCALS

May!

Who is to be queen of the May?

The McBride summer uniforms are finished.

David Smith, a former student of Chemawa, was here for a visit on Tuesday.

A postal card was received from Miss Iva Cox saying that she would be back before long.

Miss Alta Altman and Edgar Martin visited over Sunday with Miss Skipton and enjoyed the band concert.

Miss Skipton took her little girls out walking Sunday and they all had a good time in the woods gathering flowers.

Who is going to win the Salem-Portland relay race Saturday? was the question going around among the employes and pupils this week.

The new grand stands were finished just in time for the two baseball games Saturday forenoon and afternoon. They added greatly to the enjoyment of the game.

Mrs. Campbell gave the afternoon division of school a recess last Wednesday just to see if the pupils were prompt in getting back to the school room.

While on their way to school Tuesday afternoon pupils of the afternoon grades had their pictures taken and all went on to school with smiling faces, hoping to see a few of the photos within a short time.