

INDUSTRIAL NOTES

Emily Moss works in the laundry.

Patsy Barrett is working in the tailor shop.

Christina Victor takes great pride in her sewing.

Wm. Johnson is one of the sweepers at Brewer Hall.

Agnes Shepard is now working in the sewing room.

Wm. Wiley does good work for Mrs. Doherty at Brewer Hall.

The gardeners are working in the strawberry patch.

The bakers baked three thousand and sixty-four loaves of bread last week.

George Baker, one of our best workers, was in the hospital for a few days.

Mr. Westley says that the outlook for the fruit crop this year is very good.

Jimmie Joe is now working in the garden and enjoys his work very much.

Ernest David was trimming the hedge on Tuesday and it looks very nice.

Mrs. Doherty has been spading up around Brewer Hall and planting some flower seeds.

The carpenters are building the new wagon shed very rapidly. It will be of great help to the farmers.

The wagon makers are keeping the blacksmiths busy putting on the iron and setting up the wagons.

Miss Skipton is very much pleased with the work the girls in her department have done on the garments they had to make.

Third Annual Meet.

Last Wednesday evening the members of the Chemawa Young Men's Christian Association held their third annual meet at Old Chemawa. Quite a number of the male employes of the school were present. The list of events for the evening was lost and we had only a few events as follows:

Fifty-yard dash, 100 yard dash, standing broad jump and boxing contests. The events resulted as follows: Fifty-yard dash, Joe Dillstrom 1st, Joe Wiggins 2nd, H. Queachpalma 3rd; 100 yard dash, A. Francis 1st, J. Wiggins 2nd, H. Queachpalma 3rd; standing broad jump, L. Sortor 1st, W. Miller 2nd, M. Wilson 3rd; boxing contests, A. Pollock vs. A. James, Pollock won; T. McCully vs. A. Garry, McCully won; J. Dillstrom vs. Wm. Burke, Dillstrom won.

After the above events were all over the following short program was well rendered: Song, "Leader of Company B," Che-In-Tra quartet; Vocal Solo, Thomas McCully; Trio, Rink, Booth and McCully; Vocal Solo, Martin Sampson. During the rest of the time while the cooks were busy preparing the lunch for our supper, the young men separated themselves into several groups singing hymns and other songs. When the waiters called for volunteers to—"eat," we all rushed to the table and all volunteered. Before eating we sang a song, "Holy, Holy, Holy," and had a voluntary prayer by Martin Sampson. Mr. Campbell seemed to be a great favorite among the long-distance runners. Certain ones said they hated to be one of the runners that night, but they would like to be one of the runners after the relay race when the time comes for them to eat cakes, etc.

After the luncheon we had short addresses by Messrs. Chalcraft, Campbell, Teabo, Larsen, Fickle, Cox; and also some of the young men as follows: Thomas McCully, Eugene Williams, Martin Sampson, and Frank Booth, and the president. This ended the meeting at a late hour and we repaired for our quarters.
