

Academic

The Seniors enjoy the new method of studying Word Analysis.

Firman Wilson is the smallest one in the third grade.—H. W.

The Seniors will have a beautiful bed of geraniums around the fountain.

Jeanette Aubrey is one of the youngest and best pupils in Mr. Fickle's class.—J. T.

The entertainment given by the Excelsior Literary Society was very much enjoyed by the students and visitors.

The pupils of the sixth grade are now working division of decimals. We will soon be ready to take up denominate numbers.

The order of the pupils in chapel is to be commented upon. You cannot hear a whisper from the time the pupils enter until the time of dismissal.

The boys and girls have very much improved in their marching to and from school and from chapel. The order in the school building is perfect.

The work in the Normal department is very much enjoyed by the members of the Junior and Senior classes who have been detailed there by Mrs. Campbell. We all hope to get our turn.

Alfred Lane is teaching the sixth normal this week. He sometimes gives hard questions to the class, as he says he will make them work by giving to them hard lessons. We all hope he will stay with it.

The pupils of the sixth normal grade were very sorry to see the girls of the senior class turn in teaching come to an end so soon, and are in hopes they will soon be our teachers again. The Senior boys, though are teaching us in an excellent manner.

The entertainment given by the Excelsior literary society certainly was an enjoyable one, and the assembly hall was crowded. We had many visitors, who, we hope, were much pleased with the entertainment. This shows the hard study on the part of the students and of the employes who are working faithfully to the best of their ability.
